Saigon Coolie Held in Bombing

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP)—South Vietnamese police held a wounded ricksha driver today as a prime suspect in the bombing of a U.S. movie theater.

Three Americans were killed and 51 Americans — including women and children — were wounded Sunday in the latest anti-American violence in Saigon. Nine Vietnamese also were injured.

One of the dead was a military policeman who was shot while standing guard outside the theater. Another was a Marine Corps captain who was crushed under falling debris as he ran inside to warn the theater's 500 patrons.

The body of the third American was so badly mangled identification was delayed.

The U.S. command in South Viet Nam ordered security measures tightened to protect American personnel in the capital from terrorism by the Communist Viet Cong. On Feb. 9, two bombs exploded under the bleachers of a softball field near Saigon Airport, killing two U.S. enlisted men and injuring 23 other Americans.

Although police declined to discuss the ricksha boy's suspected role in the bombing, the shooting and blast apparently were the work of a highly skilled terrorist team.

Witnesses saw at least two terrorists. They said one shot the military policeman at close range. Another hurried into the theater with a canvas satchel. A third man — or woman — may have been involved.

A U.S. military spokesman said the lone Vietnamese civil policeman on duty outside the theater was seen pedaling away on a bicycle shortly before the attack.

The MP was killed by a single bullet through the neck. At least three shots were heard, however, indicating the soldier may have got off some shots.

The audience, which included U.S. servicemen, civilian officials and American dependents, was watching "The List of Adrian Messenger," Army Maj. William Koch, a patron, said most of the audience ducked under seats or rushed to the front when the Marine captain and an usher shouted warnings.

Seven Americans remained hospitalized — six servicemen and a female military employee. Five American children were treated and released. None was seriously injured.

The nine Vietnamese who were injured were outside the building.

U.S. Charge d'Affaires David G. Nes scheduled a meeting with Premier Nguyen Khanh to discuss new security measures for the nearly 10,000 Americans in Saigon.

Since the beginning of the year, Communist guerrillas have begun a campaign of terror specifically against Americans, including civilians. Vietnamese intelligence agents recently reported that Communist terrorists have moved into Saigon for that purpose.

U.S. military police swarmed the streets of Saigon after a tip that a bombing attempt might be made against the hospital where some of the injured from the theater blast were taken. No explosion occurred.

On Feb. 1, a terrorist bomb left in a Saigon bar killed a U.S. serviceman and a Vietnamese and injured four other Americans. Three days later a Viet Cong assassination squad broke into a U.S. military compound in Kontum, 260 miles north of Saigon, wounding one American officer.

$1 Million Painting Is Thief's Loot

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—A Rubens painting valued at a million dollars was stolen during the weekend from the Brussels Museum of Ancient Art.

Museum conservator P.H. Roberts-Jones told newsmen the painting, "The Negro's Head," was worth at least $1 million.

The thief or thieves entered the museum through a glass roof from a scaffolding on houses being built behind the museum. They climbed down a 20-foot rope ladder, took the painting and escaped by the same route.

The painting, by the 17th century Flemish master Peter Paul Rubens, measures 20 by 25 inches.

Roberts-Jones told newsmen: "The only thing which astonishes me and which upsets me is that people can take all this trouble for such a well-known work of art for which they will find no outlet. This painting is not salable."

He added there were two men on surveillance duty normally in the museum, but that one of them was off duty Sunday night.

Directed Acquittal Denied By Judge in Ruby Trial

DALLAS (AP) — Attorneys for Jack Ruby opened his murder trial today with a motion for a directed verdict of acquittal and Judge Joe B. Brown promptly overruled it.

The defense attorneys, Melvin Belli and Joe Tonahill, said they based the motion on the result of a neurological examination of Ruby conducted Jan. 29-30.

Ruby is charged with murder with malice in the shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald, accused assassin of President Kennedy.

Tonahill said that the examination showed "brain damage."

James Bowie, assistant district attorney, objected there was "no procedure" for this. In overruling the motion for acquittal, the judge said "that is a matter for the jury to decide."

The defense also offered two motions on grounds of double jeopardy and res judicata — that is, the question already had been adjudicated. These apparently were based on testimony introduced in a bond hearing and in a hearing on a motion to transfer the trial to another city.

Judge Brown, asked about double jeopardy motion, said, "I don't know. There is no provision for it in Texas law. Of course, they're basing all their motions on this psychiatric report."

An unprecedented panel of 900 jury candidates — nearly double the normal number — has been called in order to qualify 12 as unprejudiced.

The trial is starting in a courtroom directly across the street from the building where the assassin lurked and then fired at Kennedy.

Defense lawyers indicate that they will try to go into the circumstances of the President's murder, as an integral part of the case for Ruby.

But Henry M. Wade, Dallas County district attorney, says Oswald's guilt or innocence is immaterial in Ruby's trial.

The key phrase in the indictment of Ruby charges he "...did then and there with malice aforethought kill Lee Harvey Oswald by shooting him with a gun."

This is equivalent to a charge of murder in the first degree in other states. It carries a maximum penalty of execution in the electric chair. The minimum is two years in prison.

Wade says he will demand the death penalty for Ruby. Out of 25 murder trials, Wade has obtained 24 convictions.

Ruby's trial, it appears now, will develop into a battle of psychiatrists.

Fire, Traffic Kill 23 over Weekend

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Calamitous house fires in Cleveland and Columbus combined with a high traffic toll to make the past weekend Ohio's worst of 1964 for accidental deaths.

Nine persons, eight of them children, died in the two fatal fires. Six of these were in Cleveland during Sunday's pre-dawn hours, a day after three youngsters perished in Columbus.

In traffic, a trio of double-death accidents were tallied as the count totaled at least 14.

That made an over-all known toll of 23, compared to a previous high of 22 two weekends before.

Hoffa Starts Defense in Federal Trial

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—A West Virginia businessman testified today he never discussed James R. Hoffa's 1962 trial jury with the government's chief witness in Hoffa's current jury-tampering trial.

Nicholas J. Tweel, 39, Huntington, W. Va., was the first defense witness as the current trial began its fifth week.

He is one of five men on trial with Hoffa on charges of trying to influence jurors in the Teamsters' president's conspiracy trial in Nashville.

Tweel's version of his conversation with Edward G. Partin, a local Teamsters official from Baton Rouge, La., differed sharply from Partin's version, when Partin testified for the prosecution two weeks ago.

Partin had testified he met Tweel in the hotel coffee shop and was invited to Tweel's hotel room later that day. Partin said Tweel told him he had been invited to Nashville by Allen Dorfman—a Chicago insurance man who also is on trial here—to help "set up a method to get to the jury."

Tweel denied any knowledge of such a conversation.

Equal Representation Ordered by Tribunal

Missile Data In Conflict

LeMay, McNamara At Odds on Views

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress reportedly has received contradictory testimony on the reliability of missiles from Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara and Air Force Chief of Staff Gen. Curtis LeMay.

Informed sources on Capitol Hill report that the two, in secret testimony before the House Armed Services Committee, differed not only in their general estimates of reliability but in the specific figures they cited as evidence.

Differences between McNamara and LeMay could have potential political repercussions. Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona has raised the question of missile reliability during his campaign for the Republican presidential nomination.

Goldwater, a major general in the Air Force Reserve, has challenged the reliability of missiles and called for more funds for manned bombers. This evidently was the position taken by LeMay and rejected by McNamara before the House committee.

More light on the controversy may be shed Tuesday when the committee releases a transcript of the hearings that were held for two weeks beginning Jan. 27.

The transcript, however, will be censored by the Department of Defense. It is conceivable that figures on the reliability of missiles—if deemed classified—would be deleted.

Most members of the committee evidently were more impressed by LeMay's figures than by those of McNamara, for they added $92 million to the defense authorization bill for development of a new manned interceptor plane.

McNamara did not ask for this. But, according to the official report of the committee, LeMay did.

Twin-Engine Plane Sought Around Lake

CLEVELAND (AP) — An air search continued today for a missing twin-engine plane with four persons aboard, including two real estate men who were to survey possible building locations in Northeast Ohio.

The plane, piloted by James Mixon of Atlanta, Ga., left Detroit City Airport at 8:30 a. m. Saturday bound for the Akron-Canton Airport.

The Civil Air Patrol said passengers were Harry E. Black 47, of Grosse Pointe Woods, a Detroit suburb, who is real estate representative of S. S. Kresge Co.; Black's 12-year-old son, Edward, and George Drake, 70, a Wilton, Conn., real estate developer.

Col. Roger Burgess, Michigan Wing commander of CAP, said Windsor, Ont., Airport reported a routine radio contact with the plane at 8:40 a. m. Saturday.

That was the last heard from the four-place Aero-commander. CAP planes in Michigan and Ohio were hampered in their search early Sunday by poor visibility, but this condition improved later in the day. Twenty-five planes of the Ohio CAP searched some 8,000 square miles of Northwest Ohio until dark. A Coast Guard plane also joined the search.

Tax Cut Bill Talks Resume

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate House conferees resume work today on the tax bill with the possibility that a compromise measure may be worked out by Wednesday.

This could mean the measure would be ready for President Johnson's signature by next week, opening the way for higher paychecks for the average taxpayer by mid-March.

The conferees are trying to iron out differences between the $11.2 billion tax cut passed by the House and the $11.9 billion reduction approved in the Senate.

Although the pace in committees is expected to pick up, Congress generally planned another light week.

The controversial civil rights bill—cornerstone with the tax cut of the Johnson administration's legislative program—was expected to arrive at the Senate's door today. The 11-part omnibus measure received 290-130 approval from the House last week.

A House banking subcommittee starts hearings today on President Johnson's housing bill. Robert C. Weaver, head of the Housing and Home Finance Agency, was called as the first witness. A Senate subcommittee begins work on it Wednesday.

A House labor subcommittee scheduled the start of hearings on another Johnson program—a plan to institute double time over time in certain industries, a penalty designed to encourage employment of more workers rather than the use of overtime labor.

Secretary of Labor Willard Wirtz was the leadoff witness for this measure.

Baseball and football magnates will be on hand today and Tuesday before a Senate Anti-trust subcommittee which is considering a profession-

The missing equipment includes a red light and siren, revolver and holster, handcuffs and a blackjack.

Freighter Collides With Gulf Oil Rig

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The Coast Guard said a 475-foot Ecuadorian freighter collided with an oil rig about 75 miles south-west of Morgan City early today.

The freighter Cuidad de Guayaquil was not reported in immediate danger, the Coast Guard said, but it was taking on water from damage to the hull.

The Coast Guard said the oil rig was not believed manned when the collision occurred. No reports of injuries were received from the 7,500-ton vessel. The freighter was bound from Houston, Tex., to New Orleans.

Congressional Areas Involved

Federal Courts Given Authority

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court ruled today the Constitution requires "equal representation for equal numbers of people" as a fundamental goal for the U.S. House of Representatives.

The decision was handed down in a Georgia congressional districting case.

Justice Black, delivering the majority opinion, said federal courts have authority to look into congressional districting.

"While it may not be possible to draw congressional districts with mathematical precision," Black said, "that is no excuse for ignoring our Constitution's plain objective of making equal representation for equal numbers of people the fundamental goal for the House of Representatives."

Justice Harlan, in a dissenting opinion, wrote:

"I had not expected to witness the day when the Supreme Court of the United States would render a decision which casts grave doubt on the constitutionality of the composition of the House of Representatives."

"It is not an exaggeration to say that such is the effect of today's decision. The court's holding that the Constitution requires states to select representatives either by elections at large or by elections in districts composed 'as nearly as is practicable' of equal population places in jeopardy the seats of almost all the members of the present House of Representatives."

Term in Prison Is Given Woman

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP)—Mrs. Robert Leathers, 51, of Bowling Green convicted last week on two counts of embezzlement, was sentenced to a prison term today.

Wood County Common Pleas Court Judge Floyd A. Collier sentenced Mrs. Leathers to 1-10 years on each count, the sentences to be served consecutively at the Women's Reformatory at Marysville.

A jury found the woman guilty last Tuesday of embezzling $58,000 from the Bowling Green office of the Northern Ohio Telephone Co., where she was employed as a cashier.

LBJ Asked To Take Hand In Wheat-Loading Fuss

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—Maritime union officials asked President Johnson today to intervene personally in a labor dispute over the loading of wheat for Russia to avert "an international crisis."

The Maritime Trades department of the AFL-CIO also took a sharp verbal slap at Secretary of Commerce Luther Hodges for accusing the unions of trying to make U.S. foreign policy by threatening to boycott the wheat shipments.

Earlier, top maritime union officials rejected the personal plea of Asst. Secretary of Labor James J. Reynolds, sent here by the President because of the threatened boycott.

The unanimously adopted resolution by the maritime trades department accused Hodges and the Department of Commerce of becoming "an agent for profit-hungry operators."

The crux of the dispute is the insistence of union officials that at least half the wheat shipped to Russia go in U.S. flag vessels. They said the late President Kennedy had pledged this but that now federal officials were claiming not enough American vessels are available.

Shipping in foreign flag vessels is generally cheaper. The unions' action threatens to bog down on American docks some $75 million worth of grain to be shipped by the Continental Grain Co.

In connection with the Florida East Coast Railway strike, Secretary of Labor Willard Wirtz today asked labor and management to meet in Daytona Beach, Fla., Tuesday.

Reynolds also is expected to confer with G. E. Leighty, chief negotiator for 11 unions on strike against the Florida East Coast Railway in a 13-month-old wage dispute marked by dynamitings, shootings and accusations of sabotage.

Last Friday, two blasts tore into the underside of a Florida East Coast freight train near New Smyrna Beach. Mayor William Hathaway of New Smyrna Beach asked President Johnson to use federal forces to halt violence along the line, or shut down the railroad until the strike is settled.

Johnson got involved after strikers picketed a new spur track entering Cape Kennedy. Construction crews working on space facilities refused to cross the picket lines.

The AFL-CIO maritime trades department is expected to formally adopt the proposal to boycott loading of Soviet wheat shipments and then ask the Executive Council for its backing.

The Executive Council is made up of 29 vice presidents and other top officers of the 13.5-million-member federation.

Costello's Deportation Overturned

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court overturned today an order for deportation of Frank Costello, 71-year-old New York gambler.

Justice Stewart delivered the 6-2 decision. Justice White dissented with an opinion in which Justice Clark joined. Justice Harlan took no part.

Costello was born in Italy and brought to this country when 4 years old. He was naturalized in 1925 but the naturalization was canceled in 1959 on the ground he obtained citizenship by fraud.

In 1954 Costello was convicted of evading income taxes in 1948 and 1949. He served two years in prison. In 1961 he was ordered deported as an alien convicted of two crimes involving moral turpitude. The U.S. Circuit Court in New York ruled the two tax convictions were such crimes and upheld the deportation order.

Appealing to the Supreme Court, Costello said the immigration law provision involved did not apply to him because he was a naturalized citizen and not an alien at the time of his convictions.

Drowning Victim Services Tuesday

Funeral services will be conducted Tuesday for a local woman who was found yesterday on a sandbar along the Scioto River following an extensive search by city police, the sheriff's department and volunteers.

The woman was identified as Mrs. Helen Flannigan, 53, of 734 S. Washington St. Drowning was listed as the cause of death. Police said it was an apparent suicide.

Officers said she had been released from the Columbus State Hospital last August. She was reported as being despondent and under a physician's care prior to yesterday's fatal incident.

The body was found about 11:35 a. m., climbing a tedious search by officers who were notified of her disappearance at about 6 in the morning. She was reported missing by William A. King, who said the woman was his housekeeper at the Washington St. address.

PATROLMEN said a light snow on the ground was the sole means of knowing where Mrs. Flannigan had gone. They were able to follow her tracks, although keen observation was needed at various street intersections where the snow had melted.

Sgt. Roderick List and Patrolman Larry Pontious said the tracks were visible off-and-on all the way from the house on Washington St. to the River. When the footprints disappeared at street crossings, the officers were required to comb the entire area to find where they picked up again. Dawn was just beginning to break when the search started.

Officers said they were fortunate that at least a small amount of snow was on the ground. They indicated that otherwise it might have been several days or weeks before they found the victim.

The body was discovered about a quarter of a mile south of the city disposal plant area. Making the find was Chester L. Hill, 817 S. Scioto St., who had joined in the search. He said he played a hunch and walked on down the river from the point from where Mrs. Flannigan, apparently entered the water.

Sgt. List and Patrolman Pontious said tracks showed the woman walked from the house on Washington St., to Corwin St., back on Washington St. to Ohio St., then from Ohio to Maplewood Ave. From this vicinity, she crossed Route 23, went through the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad underpass and then walked along a field to the river.

King said Mrs. Flannigan got up early Sunday morning. He said he heard an outside door close at about 6 a. m. and that he called the police when he determined she had left the house.

JOINING in the search that followed were all available city policemen, Sheriff Walton W. Spangler and Deputy William Pontious and other personnel. The sheriff and other persons provided boats and grab hooks to probe the bottom of the river.

Officers said the woman apparently was carried downstream by an undercurrent. The body was taken to the Defenbaugh Funeral Home where it was viewed by a representative from the coroner's office.

Mrs. Flannigan was born Aug. 27, 1910, in Circleville, the daughter of Jessie and Josie Switzer Gulick. The father is deceased and the mother lives at 615 S. Clinton St.

Mrs. Flannigan was twice married, first to James Rutter deceased, and later to Ralph Flannigan, also deceased.

Also surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Potter, Plum St., Miss Helen Rutter, Columbus, and Mrs. Gladys Slonaker, Columbus; two grandchildren; two brothers, Carl Gulick, 138 Hayward Ave., and Mack Gulick, Route 4, Circleville; and one sister, Mrs. Gladys Rutter, Williamsport.

Burial will be 2 p. m. tomorrow in the Defenbaugh Funeral Home, with the Rev. Edear Jordan officiating. Burial will be in Green Summit Cemetery, Adelphi.

Friends may call at the funeral home.

Board Denies Court Budgets Cut by $6000

Solons Claim Money Is Appropriated For Juvenile Post

The county's Board of Commissioners members today denied they had cut 1964 appropriations for the Juvenile and Probate Courts by $6,000.

The Commissioners' comments were in contrast to reports last week by Juvenile Probate Judge Guy Cline that the county lawmakers had reduced his appropriations by this amount. The judge claimed he will not be able to replace Mrs. Ruth Neff, resigned juvenile officer, due to this decreased budget.

Clyde Michael, Commission chairman, said the Juvenile Court's appropriation was cut $2,200 and the Probate allowance $1,300 in comparison to 1963 for a total of $3,500.

He added, however, that the Juvenile Court had requested $17,000 for 1964, but $12,420 was actually appropriated. The Commissioners said Judge Cline must have based his $6,000 on this request.

MICHEL said the Board's actual cut of $2,200 for the Juvenile operation was in part prompted by a balance in at least one of the court's funds at the end of 1963 and the transfer of money in another.

The commissioners also denied Judge Cline's claim that sufficient money had not been allotted to replace Mrs. Neff. They said their appropriation for 1964 allowed $3,420 for a juvenile officer's salary, the same amount that was approved for last year.

According to the county solons, a cut in Juvenile Probation Officer Norton Barnes' salary was based on 50-50 matching funds that the state will provide for this post. They said the maximum amount the state will allow here at this time is $2,600.

Former Pickaway Probation Officer Ralph Starkey was paid $6,000 yearly prior to his resignation. However, the Commissioners said they were not aware that the state was not paying the full 50 per cent matching funds for his salary until a short time ago.

The county lawmakers said they based their appropriation for the new probation officer under the provisions of Section 5139.17 of the Ohio Revised Code.

Using this section of the law as a guide, said they earmarked a cut of $1,500 in Barnes' salary. But they claimed that the appropriation for Mrs. Neff's pay remained the same as it was in 1963.

Walnut Farmer Attends Feeders Convention

Hewitt Cromley, Ashville, attended the National Conference on Foreign Trade in Meats at the National Livestock Feeders Assn. Convention last week at St. Louis.

Cromley a Walnut Twp. farmer is vice president of the Ohio Cattle Feeders Assn.

The principal speaker at the conference was Floyd A. Segel, president of the Wisconsin Packing Co., Milwaukee, Wis.

Segel advocated increased import duties on livestock and an import quota set at, or below, five per cent of domestic production, Cromley said.

Large Pickaway Twp. Farm Is Transferred

Ownership of a large Pickaway Twp. farm was transferred Saturday according to an entry in the office of the Pickaway County Recorder.

The transfer consisted of 794.47 acres of farmland in Pickaway Twp. from Catherine R. Noecker and others to John W. and Adrienne A. Eshelman, 484 N. Pickaway St. The purchase price was not announced.

Stolen Auto Discovered Near Ashville

A car belonging to Mrs. Ellis Cline, Route 2, Ashville, stolen between 7:15 and 9 p. m. last night, was recovered a short time later on the Campbell Road approximately three miles south of Ashville.

The car, stolen from the corner of Plum and Powell Sts., in Ashville, had torn down approximately two rods of fence.

Damage to the auto was confined to the front bumper, chrome on the right side and several scratches on the paint, according to a report from the Pickaway Sheriff's Department.

Mrs. Cline told Ashville Marshall Glenn Clay she had left the keys in the ignition of the car. She was attending church services at the Ashville EUB Church.

The car was recovered by Pick-way County Deputy Sheriff George Linder.

Driver Hurt In Accident

Billy Vanover, 21, of Laurelville, was injured slightly Saturday evening when he lost control of a 1948 model car on an icy curve on the Tarlton-Adelphi Road just south of Tarlton.

Vanover was referred to a doctor for treatment of a bruise on the right side of his face by Warren G. Straley, investigating for the Pickaway County Sheriff's Department. The car was demolished.

Saturday's snow was the apparent cause of one other accident investigated by the Sheriff's Department Saturday.

No one was injured when a car driven by Marcella Kay Weber, 17, of Richmond and a delivery truck driven by Charles R. Starkey, 35, Washington C. H., collided on a bridge on Route 62 just north of Mt. Sterling. The accident was investigated by Deputies George Linder and William Pontious. No arrests were made in either mishap.

Important Event Scheduled Tuesday at BPO Elks Lodge

Circleville BPO Elks Lodge is scheduled to hold one of its most important meetings of the year Tuesday evening.

The event will start with a dinner at 6:30 p. m. and will include initiation of a class of 14 candidates and special tribute to veteran members.

Seven local Elks will be cited for their lengthy loyalty — four will receive 35-year pins and the other three will be honored for 50 years service.

Receiving 35-year pins will be Cotton Clark, Ed Kreisel, Denney Shelby and Ferd Pickens.

HONORED with 50-year pins (and honorary life memberships) will be Milton Friedman, George Foresman and Tom Gilliland.

The fledgling members will be initiated by Exalted Ruler Leo Morgan and his corps of officers. The class will include Robert Morgan, brother of the presiding officer. Morgan's father, Emmitt Morgan, took the membership oath during the 75th Anniversary celebration of the lodge last fall. The Morgans will become the only father-and-son combination on the local fraternal organization's roster.

Morgan will be assisted in the ceremony by these other officers: William Rieck, Marshall Winner, Gene Lindsey, Robert Huffer, Chester McKenzie, Forrest Webster, J. Russell Valentine and Richard Plum.

The dinner will be prepared by Jimmy Carpenter and his crew and will feature Carpenter's full course roast beef fare.

The land was purchased from C. F. Replogle.

Clark said he agreed with the majority that congressional districting is subject to judicial scrutiny. But then he asserted the case should be sent back to the federal district court in Georgia for a hearing on the merits of contentions by persons who objected to congressional districting in that state.

Justice Stewart, in a brief separate opinion, said he joined Harlan's dissent. He expressed belief Harlan had "unanswerably demonstrated" that the Constitution "gives no mandate to this court or to any court to ordain that congressional districts within each state must be equal in population."

Two Fulton County (Atlanta) citizens asked the Supreme Court to require a redrawing of Georgia congressional districts.

Their appeal gave the high tribunal its first chance to deal with the congressional districting problem since its decision in 1962 in a Tennessee case. The Supreme Court then ruled that districting of state legislatures was subject to review by federal courts.

The question whether federal courts have authority to rule on congressional districting was raised in appeal papers in the Georgia case, but during arguments before the high tribunal all parties agreed they have such power.

Arledge told Patrolman Richard Blaney the green light was in his favor. Keaton said the light must have changed as he took a quick glance at his dashboard. The vehicles collided in the intersection.

Patrolman Blaney said both cars were heavily damaged.

Officers Follow Tracks in Snow

Drowning Victim Services Tuesday

Funeral services will be conducted Tuesday for a local woman who was found yesterday on a sandbar along the Scioto River following an extensive search by city police, the sheriff's department and volunteers.

The woman was identified as Mrs. Helen Flannigan, 53, of 734 S. Washington St. Drowning was listed as the cause of death. Police said it was an apparent suicide.

Officers said she had been released from the Columbus State Hospital last August. She was reported as being despondent and under a physician's care prior to yesterday's fatal incident.

The body was found about 11:35 a. m., climaxing a tedious search by officers who were notified of her disappearance at about 6 in the morning. She was reported missing by William A. King, who said the woman was his housekeeper at the Washington St. address.

PATROLMEN said a light snow on the ground was the sole means of knowing where Mrs. Flannigan had gone. They were able to follow her tracks, although keen observation was needed at various street intersections where the snow had melted.

Sgt. Roderick List and Patrolman Larry Pontious said the tracks were visible off-and-on all the way from the house on Washington St. to the River. When the footprints disappeared at street crossings, the officers were required to comb the entire area to find where they picked up again. Dawn was just beginning to break when the search started.

Officers said they were fortunate that at least a small amount of snow was on the ground. They indicated that otherwise it might have been several days or weeks before they found the victim.

The body was discovered about a quarter of a mile south of the city disposal plant area. Making the find was Chester L. Hill, 817 S. Scioto St., who had joined in the search. He said he played a hunch and walked on down the river from the point from where Mrs. Flannigan, apparently entered the water.

Sgt. List and Patrolman Pontious said tracks showed the woman walked from the house on Washington St., to Corwin St., back on Washington St. to Ohio St., then from Ohio to Maplewood Ave. From this vicinity, she crossed Route 23, went through the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad underpass and then walked along a field to the river.

King said Mrs. Flannigan got up early Sunday morning. He said he heard an outside door close at about 6 a. m. and that he called the police when he determined she had left the house.

JOINING in the search that followed were all available city policemen, Sheriff Walton W. Spangler and Deputy William Pontious and other personnel. The sheriff and other persons provided boats and grab hooks to probe the bottom of the river.

Officers said the woman apparently was carried downstream by an undercurrent. The body was taken to the Deffenbaugh Funeral Home where it was viewed by a representative from the coroner's office.

Mrs. Flannigan was born Aug. 27, 1910, in Circleville, the daughter of Jessie and Josie Gulick. The father is deceased and the mother lives at 615 S. Clinton St.

Mrs. Flannigan was twice married, first to James Rutter deceased, and later to Ralph Flannigan, also deceased.

Also surviving are three daughters, Mrs. Elizabeth Potter, Plum St., Miss Helen Rutter, Columbus, and Mrs. Gladys Slonaker, Columbus; two grandchildren; two brothers, Carl Gulick, 138 Hayward Ave., and Mack Gulick, Route 4, Circleville; and one sister, Mrs. Gladys Rutter, Williamsport.

Burial will be 2 p. m. tomorrow in the Deffenbaugh Funeral Home, with the Rev. Edgar Jordan officiating. Burial will be in Green Summit Cemetery, Adelphi.

Friends may call at the funeral home.

Board Denies Court Budgets Cut by $6000

Solons Claim Money Is Appropriated For Juvenile Post

The county's Board of Commissioners members today denied they had cut 1964 appropriations for the Juvenile and Probate Courts by $6,000.

The Commissioners' comments were in contrast to reports last week by Juvenile Probate Judge Guy Cline that the county lawmakers had reduced his appropriations by this amount. The judge claimed he will not be able to replace Mrs. Ruth Neff, resigned juvenile officer, due to this decreased budget.

Clyde Michel, Commission chairman, said the Juvenile Court's appropriation was cut $2,200 and the Probate allowance $1,300 in comparison to 1963 for a total of $3,500.

He added, however, that the Juvenile Court had requested $17,000 for 1964, but $12,420 was actually appropriated. The Commissioners said Judge Cline must have based his $6,000 on this request.

MICHEL said the Board's actual cut of $2,200 for the Juvenile operation was in part prompted by a balance in at least one of the court's funds at the end of 1963 and the transfer of money in another.

The commissioners also denied Judge Cline's claim that sufficient money had not been allotted to replace Mrs. Neff. They said their appropriation for 1964 allowed $3,420 for a juvenile officer's salary, the same amount that was approved for last year.

According to the county solons, a cut in Juvenile Probation Officer Norton Barnes' salary was based on 50-50 matching funds that the state will provide for this post. They said the maximum amount the state will allow here at this time is $2,600.

Former Pickaway Probation Officer Ralph Starkey was paid $6,000 yearly prior to his resignation. However, the Commissioners said they were not aware that the state was not paying the full 50 per cent matching funds for his salary until a short time ago.

The county lawmakers said they based their appropriation for the new probation officer under the provisions of Section 5139.17 of the Ohio Revised Code.

Using this section of the law as a guide, said they earmarked a cut of $1,500 in Barnes' salary. But they claimed that the appropriation for Mrs. Neff's pay remained the same as it was in 1963.

Segel advocated increased import duties on livestock and an import quota set at, or below, five per cent of domestic production, Cromley said.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American-backed war against Communists in South Viet Nam is not only dragging badly but Red assassins are trying to terrorize Americans, including women and children, far behind the lines.

This is building to an anguished dilemma for President Johnson in this election year when he wants to look good in foreign affairs, the field in which would-be Republican presidential candidates criticize him most.

In Saigon, the capital, assassins' bombs have killed and wounded Americans in bars and a baseball stadium. American homes have been attacked with grenades. Sunday night the terrorists reached a peak.

Outside a movie theater filled with about 500 servicemen and their families, a U.S. military policeman was shot to death. Then came the bomb blast. Two more servicemen were killed, 51 Americans were wounded or injured, including women and children, and outside the theater a number of Vietnamese were killed or wounded.

An Associated Press dispatch says recent Vietnamese intelligence reports indicate top level Communist terrorist and assassination squads from North Viet Nam started moving into Saigon Jan. 1. The attacks didn't get going well until this month. Now they are multiplying in ferocity.

Ever since a bunch of South Vietnamese generals took over the government in a coup last Nov. 1, the course of the war has been uncertain and dilapidated.

This developing chaos was compounded Jan. 29 when the generals who pulled off the Nov. 1 coup were bounced out in another coup by another bunch of generals, led by Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, 36.

A "dirty, untidy, disagreeable war," Secretary of State Dean Rusk has called it, although Johnson has said "we're not pulling out."

Such a withdrawal would wreck American prestige in Southeast Asia where over many years now this country has spent American lives and billions in dollars to save the area from communism.

The American part in this war is a kind of myth. The United States is not supposed to be directly involved, because that might mean a war with Red China, which this country, after Korea, doesn't want.

In the past three years about 185 Americans have been killed in Viet Nam—mostly in the fighting area but some in Saigon—and about 600 have been wounded or injured. In addition, this country has put over $5 billion in aid into South Viet Nam.

No wonder the Communists—knowing this country's reluctance to get directly involved, since it might mean war with China—have taken advantage of the mounting uncertainties.

Their purpose seems obvious enough: To embarrass Americans throughout Asia; to weaken the will of the South Vietnamese to resist by shaking their confidence in Americans and their own government; and to create dissension in the United States over what to do.

Sooner or later Johnson must make a tremendous decision: To stay and just dawdle along while American men and money are lost; to take more direct action, despite the risks; or to get out.

Do you favor a $1.4 billion federal program for Urban Renewal?

3. Do you believe that a Constitutional amendment should be passed to permit prayer on an optional and non-sectarian basis in public schools?

4. Do you favor legislation to establish a $375 million Federal program to assist State and local bodies in establishing mass transportation facilities?

5. Do you favor the Quality Stabilization Act through which a manufacturer could set a selling price below which his products could not be sold?

6. Do you favor Federal aid to education for — (a) construction of public elementary and secondary schools? (b) Paying salaries of elementary and secondary teachers?

7. Are you in favor of private and/or parochial schools receiving the same federal benefits as public schools?

8. Do you favor legislation which would regulate farm production through compulsory controls?

9. As a general approach do you favor moving in the direction of less federal controls on farm operation?

10. Do you favor admission of Red China to the United Nations?

11. Do you favor renegotiating the treaty of 1903 relative to the Panama Canal?

12. Do you favor sending U. S. troops to Cyprus to help maintain peace between the NATO countries of Greece and Turkey?

Congressman Harsha pointed out that he has conducted similar surveys in the past and the results have been of inestimable value in directing his efforts in behalf of constituents. He said he would be pleased if those who did not receive a questionnaire, would clip it from this newspaper, complete it, fill in their name and address and send it to, Congressman William H. Harsha, 1338 Longworth Building, Washington 25, D.C.

Harsha added that, while the individual views of those returning the questionnaire will be held in confidence, a tabulation of the survey will be released when it is completed.

Stocks Reach New High Again

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market averages last week once again squeaked out new historic highs while the course of the "market" itself remained a question of debate.

The market was repeated a kind of crab-wise pattern, familiar in 1963 when rotating groups of blue chips pushed the list relentlessly higher during most of the year.

As averages go to repeated new peaks despite the fact that many stocks are far below their best, some analysts say the market is "correcting" its excesses.

Last week, the Dow industrials and other popular indicators made historic highs on Tuesday and Wednesday, then edged off.

The Dow industrials last week rose 2.97 to 794.56, closing a shade below their historic peak of 794.82 made Wednesday.

The rise was confirmed by over-all market statistics which showed that of 1,500 issues traded, 737 rose and 570 fell. Others were unchanged.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks reached a record high of 294.7 on Wednesday and ended at 294.7, making a gain of 1.2 on the week.

Volume hummed along at 22,026,010 shares compared with 21,359,679 a week ago.

The general background of economic and corporate news remained quite encouraging. For Wall Street, however, the biggest news was the setting of a price by American Telephone on its new stock rights subscription.

This allows holders of 20 shares to subscribe to one additional share. The price set was $100. Since AT&T common closed at 146 on the day the price was set, this was a windfall gift to AT&T's army of 24 million shareholders, the greatest stock-owning family in the world.

AT&T ended the week with a 3-point gain, somewhat below its best price of the week.

The five most active issues last week on the New York Stock exchange were Chrysler, up at 40 on 502,600 shares; American Telephone, up 3 at 144 on 358,100 shares; General Dynamics, up 2 1/4 at 28; Xerox, up 6 1/2 at 82; and Sperry Rand, off 1/4 at 19.

Harsha Reports

An Opinion Poll on Issues Submitted in 6th District

Congressman William H. Harsha, Ohio 6th District, announced today that he is conducting a public opinion poll in his district in order to obtain views and opinions of his constituents on major legislative issues before the 88th Congress.

A questionnaire, listing 12 legislative issues, is being sent intermittently throughout the District, with the request that they be marked and returned to the Congressman.

Here are the questions that require yes and no answers:

1. Do you favor (check one) — (a) A cut in taxes without regard to a further increase in the budget deficit? (b) A cut in taxes only if accompanied by an equal reduction in federal expenditures? (c) No tax cut at this time?

AFL-CIO Opens Member Drive

WASHINGTON (AP) — The AFL-CIO, faced with alarming membership losses in its industrial unions, is embarked on a major effort to gather up the unorganized 14 million white collar workers.

It's potentially a fertile field—made up of teachers, government employees, clerks and office workers of all kinds — and is larger than the AFL-CIO's entire membership of some 13.5 million.

But the big union has run into resistance and one major reason is "snob appeal," according to an article in the Labor Department's monthly Labor Review, and an AFL-CIO spokesman agrees.

"Snob appeal is definitely one reason," the union spokesman said, "but it's fading as fast as the boss puts machines into the office and the white collar worker becomes just another machine operator."

The Labor Review article, by Albert A. Blum, lays the blame at labor's own door for its past failure to organize the man who goes to work in white collar and tie.

"First, unions did very little. Second, what they did was wrong. Third, they did it too late," says Blum, assistant to the director of Michigan State University's school of labor and industrial relations.

He cited examples of union organizing literature that told white collar clerks that they weren't earning as much as janitors.

Such appeals backfired, said Blum, because of snob appeal.

The World Today

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American-backed war against Communists in South Viet Nam is not only dragging badly but Red assassins are trying to terrorize Americans, including women and children, far behind the lines.

This is building to an anguished dilemma for President Johnson in this election year when he wants to look good in foreign affairs, the field in which would-be Republican presidential candidates criticize him most. In Saigon, the capital, assassins' bombs have killed and wounded Americans in bars and a baseball stadium. American homes have been attacked with grenades. Sunday night the terrorists reached a peak.

Outside a movie theater filled with about 500 servicemen and their families, a U.S. military policeman was shot to death. Then came the bomb blast. Two more servicemen were

Stocks Reach New High Again

NEW YORK (AP) — Stock market averages last week once again squeaked out new historic highs while the course of the "market" itself remained a question of debate.

The market was repeated a kind of crab-wise pattern, familiar in 1963 when rotating groups of blue chips pushed the list relentlessly higher during most of the year.

As averages go to repeated new peaks despite the fact that many stocks are far below their best, some analysts say the market is "correcting" its excesses.

Last week, the Dow industrials and other popular indicators made historic highs on Tuesday and Wednesday, then edged off. The Dow industrials last week rose 2.97 to 794.56, closing a shade below their historic peak of 794.82 made Wednesday.

The rise was confirmed by over-all market statistics which showed that of 1,500 issues traded, 737 rose and 570 fell. Others were unchanged.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks reached a record high of 294.7 on Wednesday and ended at 294.7, making a gain of 1.2 on the week.

Volume hummed along at 22,026,010 shares compared with 21,359,679 a week ago.

The general background of economic and corporate news remained quite encouraging. For Wall Street, however, the biggest news was the setting of a price by American Telephone on its new stock rights subscription.

This allows holders of 20 shares to subscribe to one additional share. The price set was $100. Since AT&T common closed at 146 on the day the price was set, this was a windfall gift to AT&T's army of 2 1/2 million shareholders, the greatest stock-owned family in the world.

AT&T ended the week with a 3-point gain, somewhat below its best price of the week.

The five most active issues last week on the New York Stock exchange were Chrysler, up at 40 on 502,600 shares; American Telephone, up 3 at 144 1/4 on 358,100 shares; General Dynamics, up 2 1/4 at 28; Xerox, up 6 1/2 at 82; and Sperry Rand, off 1/4 at 19.

killed, 51 Americans were wounded or injured, including women and children, and outside the theater a number of Vietnamese were killed or wounded.

An Associated Press dispatch says recent Vietnamese intelligence reports indicate top level Communist terrorist and assassination squads from North Viet Nam started moving into Saigon Jan. 1. The attacks didn't get going well until this month. Now they are multiplying in ferocity.

Ever since a bunch of South Vietnamese generals took over the government in a coup last Nov. 1, the course of the war has been uncertain and dilapidated.

This developing chaos was compounded Jan. 29 when the generals who pulled off the Nov. 1 coup were bounced out in another coup by another bunch of generals, led by Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh, 36.

A "dirty, untidy, disagreeable war," Secretary of State Dean Rusk has called it, although Johnson has said "we're not pulling out."

Such a withdrawal would wreck American prestige in Southeast Asia where over many years now this country has spent American lives and billions in dollars to save the area from communism.

The American part in this war is a kind of myth. The United States is not supposed to be directly involved, because that might mean a war with Red China, which this country, after Korea, doesn't want.

In the past three years about 185 Americans have been killed in Viet Nam—mostly in the fighting area but some in Saigon—and about 600 have been wounded or injured. In addition, this country has put over $5 billion in aid into South Viet Nam.

No wonder the Communists—knowing this country's reluctance to get directly involved, since it might mean war with China—have taken advantage of the mounting uncertainties.

Their purpose seems obvious enough: To embarrass Americans throughout Asia; to weaken the will of the South Vietnamese to resist by shaking their confidence in Americans and their own government; and to create dissension in the United States over what to do.

Sooner or later Johnson must make a tremendous decision: To stay and just dawdle along while American men and money are lost; to take more direct action, despite the risks; or to get out.

He said he would be pleased if those who did not receive a questionnaire, would clip it from this newspaper, complete it, fill in their name and address and send it to, Congressman William H. Harsha added that, while the individual views of those returning the questionnaire will be held in confidence, a tabulation of the survey will be released when it is completed.

Is Masculinity Deflated?

A comment on the expression, "Good-bye, now," replacing the old-fashioned "Good-bye" when individuals take leave of each other face-to-face or on the telephone, deemed it a meaningless absurdity. The writer said his studies indicated "Good-bye now" was a largely feminine usage. But perhaps more men have taken it up than he realizes.

If "Good-bye, now" can be regarded as feminine, when used by a female, it is not necessarily sissy when used by a male. But we've been hearing something else lately. From the mouth of a woman it would be kind of cute. But from a man?

The expression is "Bye, bye," used in signing off a telephone conversation. When a hairy-chested hunk of masculinity says "Bye-bye" in winding up talks by wire, is that good? Is this in the spirit of red-blooded Americanism? Does this reflect the pioneer strength that made America great?

An 'Out' for Nikita

By John Chamberlain

As this is being written, the big Soviet confab on agricultural policy is taking place in the Kremlin against the background of successive crop failures.

Somewhat this takes one back to the year of 1623 in the Plymouth Colony of Massachusetts. The Pilgrims, like the Russians, had been struggling with an agricultural plan imposed by a collectivist theory. Nobody could own the land he worked. The young men of the colony were grumbling that their labor went to feed the children of able-bodied married elders; husbands resented the fact that their wives had to slave not only for their own families but for the Plymouth bachelors. So nobody worked any more than a grudgingly prudent dictated, and the carry-over of food was running out even before the 1923 summer planting.

Fortunately for the Plymouth Colony, its leader, Governor William Bradford, was a philosopher, not an ideologist. He was a student of comparative systems, not an arbitrary believer in any one system. And he mused, as he confronted the need for a decision on Plymouth farming practice, on "the vanity of that conceit of Plato's and other ancients, applauded by some of later times, that the taking away of property, and bringing in community into a common wealth, would make them happy and flourishing; as if they were wiser than God."

The retreat from the communal system of farming brought plenty to Plymouth. If I were a correspondent in Moscow, and could get the ear of Khrushchev, I would call the Plymouth story to the attention of the wily pragmatist who has tried just about everything he can think of to get Russian agriculture moving on a collectivist basis. Who knows, maybe Khrushchev might have that final bit of elasticity needed to make him ponder on "the vanity" of a fallacy as old as Plato.

Khrushchev wouldn't have to be shamed about becoming the Governor Bradford of Russia. For the current Soviet agricultural troubles are the result of Stalin's policies, and Khrushchev, as everyone knows, has been turning his back on the memory of Stalin.

Look at the mess that the Stalinization of Russian farming has brought about! Some ninety-five percent of the total usable acreage in Russia is farmed by collectivist practices. The peasants, fighting a defensive war, have retained the right to a little less than five percent of the land for private plots. Yet out of these private plots there comes almost half the green vegetables, half the meat and milk, sixty per cent of the potatoes, and three-fourths of the eggs that are consumed by two hundred million people.

The peasant tends his garden with love wherever the bureaucrat leaves him alone. But the collective and state farms have gone from bad to worse, and now, for lack of feed, the peasants are once again slaughtering pigs.

The best agricultural machinery has been committed to the so-called "virgin lands" of Central Asia, but nature in this region is "agin" anything except grazing. Wheat production on the virgin lands has declined year by year since 1956. Meanwhile, on the good wheat lands of the Ukraine and elsewhere, the second-rate machinery has gone to pieces. And the spare parts necessary to renovate tractors and harvesters haven't been available.

Reaching wildly for one last panacea, Khrushchev has decided that chemical fertilizers are the answer. But the chemical fertilized requirements for an agriculture that dispenses with crop rotation and the maintenance of enough pasture lands to supply animal manures are staggering. Khrushchev, as the big agricultural policy meeting in the Kremlin gets under way, has set a chemical fertilizer production target of 24 million tons for 1964. But he needs at least 70 million tons if Russia is to feed itself.

A chemical industry takes years to mature, as the history of the United States between 1920 and 1950 proves. It demands a stretching of basic supplies of iron and other minerals merely to get the raw materials for machinery. Something in Russia will have to give us let us say military tanks, missile manufacturing machinery, locomotives, freight cars and all the other things needed for an industrial civilization.

Russia could still surmount its troubles if it only had the elasticity to forget ideology and let the peasant revert to his status under Lenin's New Economic Policy of the Twenties. It could be an easy decision for Khrushchev; after all, he could make it the final gesture in his repudiation of Stalin.

Try and Stop Me

By BENNETT CERF

A NEW YORKER drove all the way to California without an incident, but once within the city limits of Los Angeles, found himself hopelessly confused in the complex of overpasses, underpasses, and clover leaves of the Freeway system. Finally he pulled up alongside a man who had a lady and four children in the car with him.

"Mister," implored the New Yorker, "can you help me out? I've been trying to get to the Civic Center for six hours and I wind up at this spot every time." "You're asking the wrong man, Brother," replied the man with the lady and the four children. "I ain't even gotten home yet from my honeymoon."

In one of Brooklyn's toughest neighborhoods, a teacher in the eighth grade asked, "Who can name the greatest invention of Thomas Edison?" A villainous-looking youth in the front row volunteered, "The electric chair."

A Southern gentleman who should be in the diplomatic corps was asked by a kitchin hostess to estimate her age. "Ah can't rightly reckon, ma'am," he responded, "but Ah do know this: if I saw you on the street, Ah'd whistle first, and estimate later."

Speaking of YOUR HEALTH...

By LESTER L. COLEMAN, M.D.

Perhaps we might pause and take stock of new medical advances.

Recent months have witnessed the remarkable transplantations of kidneys, lungs and even the liver. The daring and ingenious attempts at transplantation even included implanting the kidneys of a chimpanzee in a human. Dr. Keith Reemstma and a team of surgeons at Tulane Medical School in New Orleans attempted this unique life-saving operation after other experts had established the groundwork for success.

Many difficulties of immunization and rejection of other transplants were studied by teams of specialists in every field of medicine, in order to make transplants survive.

Research in cancer ceaselessly progressed, exploring every lead that suggests the possibility of cure. Finely specialized techniques of X-Ray examination of the breast have been of tremendous value in the early detection and cure of cancer. Mammography (X-Ray of the soft tissue of the breast) is now universally used to augment all other methods of diagnosis.

Thermography is a new technique that uses infrared rays to measure the temperature of the skin surface. Inflammation and tumors can be much more readily detected with thermography.

A new drug developed by Dr. Moses B. Tendler, of Yeshiva University in New York, was first discovered by him in the Virgin Islands. This antibiotic, called Refuin, has stimulated great interest in its effect on certain types of tumors.

The creation and use of a new measles vaccine already indicate the possibility that measles will soon be totally eradicated. And measles is one disease which, despite its severity and complications, has been taken too casually in the past.

Surgery of the heart has attained levels of success undreamed of even by science fiction enthusiasts. Heart valves are now sterilized, frozen and preserved in vacuum packs, and banked for use in planned heart surgery.

Intricate heart surgery has progressed from the rarity to the usual; from occasional success to frequent success, bringing new life and hope to those otherwise destined to infirmity.

readily and unselfishly transmitted from one nation to another.

The language of science and medicine knows no fear or hate. Communication between doctors in all nations is free, uninhibited, and unrelated to ideology. Only the goal of man's health is the mutual objective.

A dramatic evidence of surgical skill occurred in China when a completely severed hand was successfully reattached. Nerves, blood vessels, muscles, bones and tendons were reunited by surgeons in Shanghai. Completely documented and photographed evidence of the restored hand testified to the daring surgery of this modern era.

What else is new in medicine? Surgery performed in oxygen chambers, cures for virus infections of the eyes, new treatment for burns, isotopes for diagnosis, genetic studies to prevent birth malformations, new operations for deafness. These are only a few of research scientists' newer gifts to mankind.

Hosiery Bill Can Run High

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

A hosiery manufacturer estimates the average American woman wears out 13 pairs of stockings a year.

The old-fashioned male who still believes woman's place is in the kitchen may be dismayed to learn that our girls spend some nine million hours a week in the nation's beauty shops.

In this troubled world it's nice to know that one of the pamphlets you can buy from the U.S. Government Printing Office is "Problems of Present Day Poetry in Rumania."

In the Soviet Union one person in every 358 owns an automobile—in the United States one out of three.

Hippopotamus meat may be canned commercially. Experimenters say it is less tasty than beef but contains more protein and goes down well with rice and a touch of curry.

The Business World

By JACK LEFLER

AP Business News Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The biggest corporate financing program in U.S. history took the business spotlight during the past week.

It was undertaken by American Telephone & Telegraph Co., which turned to its family of 2.25 million stockholders to raise $1,225,000,000.

The company offered its shareholders the opportunity of purchasing 12.25 million shares at $100 each. This was $46 below the market price on the day the offer was made.

Each shareholder received the right to purchase one new share for each 20 held.

Trading began on the New York Stock Exchange on Wednesday with 3,375,000 changing hands.

American Telephone's common stock surged to a new all-time high.

It helped the general stock market, as measured by the averages, reach a new historic peak.

The magnitude of AT&T's money raising undertaking is illustrated by the fact that all common stock financing in 1962 totaled $1.3 billion.

AT&T will use the proceeds of its stock offer to help finance a $3.25-billion growth and modernization program for its telephone system in 1964.

Also in the communications field, the Communications Satellite Corp. reported that six companies had answered its request to submit proposals for designing an international commercial satellite.

AT&T and Radio Corp. of America submitted a joint proposal. Thompson Ramo Woolridge, Inc.'s proposal included International Telephone & Telegraph Corp. as principal subcontractor. Individual proposals were submitted by Hughes Aircraft Co. and Ford Motor Co.'s Philco Corp. subsidiary.

Business and individuals were encouraged by the progress being made toward enactment of the income tax reduction legislation.

Different versions of the bill have been passed by the House and Senate, and conferees from both bodies are trying to reconcile differences.

The Department of Commerce reported that the U.S. balance of payments improved further in the fourth quarter of 1963. The quarterly deficit was the smallest in years.

For the year as a whole the United States had a deficit of $3.02 billion.

In the second half, the deficit was at an annual rate of $1.6 billion, the lowest since the balance of payments began to be a serious problem in 1958.

Reasons given for the improvement were reduced net purchases of foreign securities and a spurt in exports, particularly agricultural products to both Communist and non-Communist countries.

The Commerce Department also reported that inventories rose only slightly in December from November and that total business sales climbed to a record.

Inventories gained $80 million to a total of $102.75 billion against an increase of $780 million in November.

Sales in December totaled $68.96 billion, up from $67.19 billion in November.

Automobile production dipped during the week to an estimated 164,900 passenger cars from 168,360 the previous week but was well ahead of the 149,392 built a year ago.

Chrysler Corp., last of the Big Three automakers to announce 1963 sales and earnings, joined General Motors Corp. and Ford Motor Co. in reporting a record year.

Chrysler earned $161.6 million, equal to $4.35 a share, compared with $65.4 million, or $1.81 a share. Sales climbed to $3.5 billion from $2.37 billion.

Steel mills turned out during the week 2.22 million tons of ingots, up 3,000 tons from the previous week and the highest weekly level since last June 29.

Letter To The Editor

EDITORS NOTE — We welcome letters to the editor. They must be signed by the writer with a complete return address. However the name and address will not be used in the published letter upon request of the writer. Opinions expressed in this column are those of the writers and not necessarily those of The Herald.

To the Editor:

Early last fall Pickaway County lost a conscientious juvenile officer in the person of Ralph Starkey. Reason: lack of adequate compensation for the work required.

Now, not six months later, Mrs. Ruth Neff has notified county officials that she is resigning for basically the same reason.

The work of a juvenile officer requires intelligence, tact, diligence and untiring concern for the unlovable child—the child whose parents frequently could not care less about him. It demands that the officer be on 24-hour call. There is no such thing as an 8-hour day.

Besides this, there is the constant heartbreak in dealing with children, who, for many reasons, have never been able to adjust to daily situations in which they find themselves. It takes more than just an ordinary person to fill this job specification.

Yet knowing how hard it is to find persons who are interested, who do care and who are conscientious in their work, the Board of County Commissioners are apparently unconcerned that two such superior workers have sought other occupations—not because the work is hard and thankless but because they are in no way being paid what their services are worth to the County of Pickaway.

I feel this is a case of being pennywise and pound-foolish. Which costs more—paying a juvenile officer $300 a month (which would have been a $15 a month raise in Mrs. Neff's case) or footing the long-time bill for just one teen-age girl who starts out with petty theft and ends up with periodic drunk and disorderly charges, illegitimate children and/or Marysville Reformatory?

In the report put out by the Juvenile Court here last spring, it was noted that a decline in juvenile crime seemed to be appearing. It is possible to attribute this hopeful sign to the competent work of the juvenile officers, Mr. Starkey and Mrs. Neff.

Now, in February of 1964, we only look forward to starting back again where we were with one new juvenile officer and a deputy clerk in the Probate Court. The latter will receive the unbelievable sum of $10-$15 per month for her extra work.

If this were one of the counties in the "depressed" areas, such a situation could be comprehended. But Pickaway County has enough money to be able to pay a respectable salary to a public servant whose work is worth incomparable more to the lives of those with whom they work.

Is Masculinity Deflated?

A comment on the expression, "Good-bye, now," replacing the old-fashioned "Good-bye" when individuals take leave of each other face-to-face or on the telephone, deemed it a meaningless absurdity. The writer said his studies indicated "Good-bye now" was a largely feminine usage. But perhaps more men have taken it up than he realizes.

If "Good-bye, now" can be regarded as feminine, when used by a female, it is not necessarily sissy when used by a male. But we've been hearing something else lately. From the mouth of a woman it would be kind of cute. But from a man?

The expression is "Bye, bye," used in signing off a telephone conversation. When a hairy-chested hunk of masculinity says "Bye-bye" in winding up talks by wire, is that good? Is this in the spirit of red-blooded Americanism? Does this reflect the pioneer strength that made America great?

An 'Out' for Nikita

By John Chamberlain

As this is being written, the big Soviet confab on agricultural policy is taking place in the Kremlin against the background of successive crop failures.

Somehow this takes one back to the year of 1923 in the Plymouth Colony of Massachusetts. The Pilgrims, like the Russians, had been struggling with an agricultural plan imposed by a collectivist theory. Nobody could own the land he worked. The young men of the colony were grumbling that their labor went to feed the children of able-bodied married elders; husbands resented the fact that their wives had to slave not only for their own families but for the Plymouth bachelors. So nobody worked any more than a grudging prudence dictated, and the carry-over of food was running out even before the 1923 summer planting.

Fortunately for the Plymouth Colony, its leader, Governor William Bradford, was a philosopher, not an ideologist. He was a student of comparative systems, not an arbitrary believer in any one system. And he mused, as he confronted the need for a decision on Plymouth farming practice, on "the vanity of that conceit of Plato's and other ancients, applauded by some of later times, that the taking away of property, and bringing in community into a common wealth, would make them happy and flourishing; as if they were wiser than God."

The retreat from the communal system of farming brought plenty to Plymouth. If I were a correspondent in Moscow, and could get the ear of Khrushchev, I would call the Plymouth story to the attention of the wily pragmatist who has tried just about everything he can think of to get Russian agriculture moving on a collectivist basis. Who knows, maybe Khrushchev might have that final bit of elasticity needed to make him ponder on "the vanity" of a fallacy as old as Plato.

Khrushchev wouldn't have to be shamed about becoming the Governor Bradford of Russia. For the current Soviet agricultural troubles are the result of Stalin's policies, and Khrushchev, as everyone knows, has been turning his back on the memory of Stalin.

Look at the mess that the Stalinization of Russian farming has brought about! Some ninety-five percent of the total usable acreage in Russia is farmed by collectivist practices. The peasants, fighting a defensive war, have retained the right to a little less than five percent of the land for private plots. Yet out of these private plots there comes almost half the green vegetables, half the meat and milk, sixty per cent of the potatoes, and three-fourths of the eggs that are consumed by two hundred million people.

The peasant tends his garden with love wherever the bureaucrat leaves him alone. But the collective and state farms have gone from bad to worse, and now, for lack of feed, the peasants are once again slaughtering pigs.

The best agricultural machinery has been committed to the so-called "virgin lands" of Central Asia, but nature in this region is "agin" anything except grazing. Wheat production on the virgin lands has declined year by year since 1956. Meanwhile, on the good wheat lands of the Ukraine and elsewhere, the second-rate machinery has gone to pieces. And the spade parts necessary to renovate tractors and harvesters haven't been available.

Reaching wildly for one last panacea, Khrushchev has decided that chemical fertilizers are the answer. But the chemical fertilizers required for an agriculture that dispenses with crop rotation and the maintenance of enough pasture lands to supply animal manures are staggering. Khrushchev, as the big agricultural policy meeting in the Kremlin gets under way, has set a chemical fertilizer production target of 24 million tons for 1964. But he needs at least 70 million tons if Russia is to feed itself.

A chemical industry takes years to mature, as the history of the United States between 1920 and 1950 proves. It demands a stretching of basic supplies of iron and other minerals merely to get the raw materials for machinery. Something in Russia will have to give — let us say military tanks, missile manufacturing machinery, locomotives, freight cars and all the other things needed for an industrial civilization.

Russia could still surmount its troubles if it only had the elasticity to forget ideology and let the peasant revert to his status under Lenin's New Economic Policy of the Twenties. It could be an easy decision for Khrushchev; after all, he could make it the final gesture in his repudiation of Stalin.

The Business World

AP Business News Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—The biggest corporate financing program in U.S. history took the business spotlight during the past week.

It was undertaken by American Telephone & Telegraph Co., which turned to its family of 2.25 million stockholders to raise $1,225,000,000.

The company offered its shareholders the opportunity of purchasing 12.25 million shares at $100 each. This was $46 below the market price on the day the offer was made.

Each shareholder received the right to purchase one new share for each 20 held.

Trading began on the New York Stock Exchange on Wednesday with 3,375,000 changing hands.

American Telephone's common stock surged to a new all-time high.

It helped the general stock market, as measured by the averages, reach a new historic peak.

The magnitude of AT&T's money raising undertaking is illustrated by the fact that all common stock financing in 1962 totaled $1.3 billion.

AT&T will use the proceeds of its stock offer to help finance a $3.25-billion growth and modernization program for its telephone system in 1964.

Also in the communications field, the Communications Satellite Corp. reported that six companies had answered its request to submit proposals for designing an international commercial satellite.

AT&T and Radio Corp. of America submitted a joint proposal. Thompson Ramo Woolridge, Inc.'s proposal included International Telephone & Telegraph Corp. as principal contractor. Individual proposals were submitted by Hughes Aircraft Co. and Ford Motor Co.'s Philco Corp. subsidiary.

Reasons given for the improvement were reduced net purchases of foreign securities and a spurt in exports, particularly agricultural products to both Communist and non-Communist countries.

The Commerce Department also reported that inventories rose only slightly in December from November and that total business sales climbed to a record.

Inventories gained $80 million to a total of $102.75 billion against an increase of $790 million in November.

Sales in December totaled $68.96 billion, up from $67.19 billion in November.

Automobile production dipped during the week to an estimated 164,900 passenger cars from 168,360 the previous week but was well ahead of the 149,392 built a year ago.

Chrysler Corp., last of the Big Three automakers to announce 1963 sales and earnings, joined General Motors Corp. and Ford Motor Co. in reporting a record year.

Chrysler earned $161.6 million, equal to $4.35 a share, compared with $65.4 million, or $1.81 a share. Sales climbed to $3.5 billion from $2.37 billion.

Steel mills turned out during the week 2.22 million tons of ingots, up 3,000 tons from the previous week and the highest weekly level since last June 29.

To the Editor:

Early last fall Pickaway County lost a conscientious juvenile officer in the person of Ralph Starkey. Reason: lack of adequate compensation for the work required.

Cost of NASA Causes Concern

WASHINGTON (AP)—At age 5 the National Aeronautics and Space Administration (NASA) has the solar system for a playpen and dollars for building blocks.

No one denies NASAs accomplishments in placing satellites into orbit or that the man-in-space program was a tremendous achievement.

But there is a continuing official concern in Washington about NASAs high cost.

By 1970 NASA will have spent at the current rate somewhere between $35 and $50 billion in establishing U.S. pre-eminence in space, a program which envisions a manned landing on the moon.

The space agency was formed in October 1958 out of the old National Advisory Committee for Astronautics. In its first five years NASAs budget has expanded from $348 million to $5.1 billion, and the agency is asking for $5.3 billion for fiscal 1965.

In that same period NASA has announced three major reorganizations, each designed to tighten administrative control.

NASA has approximately 32,000 employees. It pays the highest salaries of any federal agency and has more people—349—in appointive jobs paying $16,500 to $21,000 annually than any other two federal agencies.

In the 1963 session Congress cut NASAs budget requests by $600 million dollars.

The General Accounting Office, Congress overseer of spending has reported that NASA contributed to the wastage of about $100 million in connection with the Centaur rocket and the Advent satellite program.

The General Accounting Office released a report last October which said a miscalculation about the weight the Centaur could lift had forced cancellation of the Defense Department's Advent program.

Beyond this, NASA has had some expensive failures.

Six of the Ranger shots, designed to send operating television cameras to the moon, have failed. Each failure has cost around $18 million.

Then there was Mariner I which was to investigate the atmosphere around Venus. Failure to insert a hyphen in the guidance formula, so NASA has said, caused the rocket to veer off course. It was destroyed. Cost: $20 million.

The year-by-year record established by NASA shows that the space agency has yet to complete a major program on schedule or at the original cost estimate.

NASA explains the cost increase by saying: "During its first five years NASA achieved success more rapidly than had been hoped, but the price of success was much higher than had been anticipated. This was largely due to lack of prior experience.

As for the schedule lags, NASA says: "In attempting to do something which has never been done before, you cannot escape the necessity for establishing goals which are sometimes based on insufficient information.

Youths Dig Beethoven Too

NEW YORK (AP) — Teen-agers dig Beethoven as well as the Beatles, Maestro Leopold Stokowski set out to prove here. And he did it, too.

Stokowski directed the American Symphony Orchestra in Carnegie Hall with about 3,000 young men and women present — some loaded down with Beatles wigs, banners and transistor radios with ear plugs, tuned in to recordings of Britain's mop haired quartet, who a few days ago set up a storm in the same hall.

The maestro interrupted his musical program, featuring Beethoven, with a question and answer period. The discussion theme was the Beatle rock versus longhair music.

"You — the little blonde over there — why do you like those four boys?" Stokowski asked.

"Well, I like the way they moved their heads," she replied.

Asked Stokowski: "How can you girls say you like the Beatle music when you make so much noise you can't hear them perform?"

Replied one girl: "I like their clothes and I think they're real sexy."

"Those Beatles knock me out," said another.

At the end of the program, the maestro asked his young audience: "That wasn't so bad now, was it?"

There was thunderous applause. The youngsters excited humming snatches of Beethoven's melodious Fifth Symphony.

U.S. Failure To Accept Soviet Challenge Is Hit

NEW YORK (AP) — Robert Murphy, a top diplomatic troubleshooter for 20 years, says the U.S. failure to challenge the Russians when they blockaded Berlin in 1948 led to Communist aggression in Korea.

Writing in the Feb. 22 issue of The Saturday Evening Post, Murphy says he and Gen. Lucius D. Clay proposed using "a small combat force to call the Russian bluff at Helmstedt."

The Joint Chiefs of Staff opposed the idea of using force, Murphy says, and President Harry S. Truman "reluctantly approved this opinion."

"Strangely enough," Murphy writes, "nobody, either military or civilian, mentioned that the United States government in 1948 possessed a growing stockpile of atomic bombs, while Russia had none yet."

The article by Murphy, who has retired, is a condensation from his book, "Diplomat Among Warriors," to be published this month by Doubleday & Co., Inc.

At the time of the Berlin blockade Murphy was Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's political adviser on German affairs. Eisenhower then was U.S. Army chief of staff.

"The Berlin blockade is the one occasion in my long career where I feel I should have resigned in public protest against Washington's policy," Murphy discloses.

He says he suffered anguish over the Berlin policy, "and I still deeply regret that I was associated with an action which caused Soviet leaders to downgrade United States determination and capability, and led, I believe, to the subsequent Communist provocation in Korea."

Murphy says he first became concerned about Berlin's status at the time of the Nazi surrender in 1945 and argued for a clearly defined "right of access" from the American and British zones to Berlin.

He says he brought the matter up at a meeting with Ambassador John G. Winant, then U.S. representative on the Anglo-American-Russian agency.

"I told Winant that in my experience the Russians were sharp bargainers who traditionally expected over people to do the same," Murphy relates.

"To my surprise Winant exclaimed vehemently, 'You have no right to come along at this late date and make such a proposal, just after we have agreed upon a draft!'"

Murphy relates another area where he disagreed strongly with American policy. That was in 1952 when he was the first U.S. postwar ambassador to Japan. He and Gen. Mark W. Clark favored "immediate resumption of a drive to unite Korea... fight to win our objective."

"The United States had the military capacity to drive the Chinese 'volunteers' into Manchuria, but for various reasons we were holding back," Murphy says. . . . In the absence of a national determination to win the war, the United States accepted a stalemate."

He was scheduled to go on trial Feb. 18.

Controversial Stage Play Is Readied for Broadway

By WILLIAM GLOVER
Associated Press Drama Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — "The Deputy," a play that has incited cheers, catcalls and commotion all over Europe, is being readied for Broadway, and producer-director Herman Shumlin is ready for almost anything.

"I know there will be great antagonism," he says, "but I know we are doing something important, valid and exciting for the theater."

Starring Emlyn Williams and Jeremy Brett, the exhibit is scheduled to premier at the Atkinson on Feb. 26.

Already some Jewish and Catholic groups have protested presentation of the drama that criticizes Pope Pius XII, alleging he did not speak out against Hitler's annihilation of millions of Jews during World War II.

"Only those who haven't seen it or read it are against it," Shumlin asserts. "This is a play about silence — the silence of all of us. And I mean me."

Turbulence has marked the play's course since it opened in Berlin a year ago. An uproar of protest ensued. Spectators hurled rotten eggs at the cast when it was done in Basel. Pickets paraded at its London debut.

The fiercest reaction developed in Paris, where intransigent members of audiences broke up several performances by shouting insults, blowing whistles and jumping on the stage to wrestle with the actors. A dozen other cities get productions in 1964.

Pope Paul VI has criticized it; Albert Schweitzer and Pastor Martin Niemoller are among its supporters.

"You can measure the importance of a play by the amount of controversy it creates," declares Shumlin, a chunkily-built, bald veteran of many Broadway campaigns.

"I am a man who takes the world seriously and I take the theater seriously. I believe with Shaw that the theater is the foremost pulpit in the world from which to speak.

"The place where too many Catholics are offended is in the actual presentation of Pius XII on stage. They wouldn't mind if this Pope had died 200 years ago. No one objects to references to a Pope in 'Luther' or in 'A Man For All Seasons.'"

The pontiff appears in only one scene of the original, but a reading of the full-length work — to be published here by Grove Press — discloses continuous emphasis on the Holy See policy in 1942.

"Why is there not a single word heard from the only man in Europe still free today from any taint of propaganda: The Pope," one character asks early in the action.

The indictment intensifies when the drama's central figure, a young priest based upon two German clerics of World War II, declares:

"A deputy of Christ who sees these things and nonetheless permits reasons of state to seal his lips — who wastes even one day in thought, hesitates even an hour to lift his anguished voice in one anathema to chill the blood of every last man on earth — that Pope is . . . a criminal."

At the drama's end the priest accompanies a group of Jews to the furnaces of Auschwitz.

Says Shumlin: "The Pope is only a symbol — he is representative of the silence of everyone in those days.

"If the play only reminded us that we failed as human beings then, I don't think I'd do it.

"But I hope this play will make people say — such silence is true even today. We've all taken the easy way in the problems that face our world — and we need to be awakened to our responsibility."

Portraying the young priest is Brett, a Londoner in his first major Broadway appearance. Pius XII is enacted by Williams — who appeared here last season as Sir Thomas More in "A Man For All Seasons."

"I'm not Jewish, I'm not Catholic," says Williams. "I'm just an actor who knows a good role."

A January thaw in New England is mentioned in literature as early as 1798.

New Cosmetics Actually Work Wonders

COSMETIC CAMOUFLAGE — A tinted cosmetic stick is used to conceal blemishes, moles and freckles. It is also useful for banishing under-eye shadows.

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN

Cosmetics keep beauty secrets — and keep them well. The cosmetics we have in mind are those that camouflage. They can conceal everything from a broken nail to a blemished complexion.

Paste — on nails, available at the dime store, cover a broken nail in a nifty way. Once properly in place, the phony nail looks like the real thing.

Paste-in eyelashes conceal natural ones that are on the short and stubby side. If carefully trimmed, as instructions suggest, they're unbelievably glamorous. Don't leave them too, too long, though, or they'll look artificial.

As camouflage goes, what's more concealing than the very popular wig?

It slips right over straggly locks and — presto! — curls.

In make-up two items are especially great when it comes to camouflage.

One of them is a real wonder-worker. It literally covers marks — even birthmarks.

Available in skin tones, it does a fantastically successful job of concealing not only port-wine stains but many other blemishes and discolorations as well. Once it's set with a colorless finishing powder, it won't rub off, chip or peel.

The other make-up, which is probably the most widely used of the camouflaging cosmetics, is a make-up stick in skin-matching shades. It conceals blemishes, moles and freckles and does a masterful job of making under-eye shadows vanish.

Looks That Way!

DEAR ABBY: I am a senior in high school and I like a boy who is also a senior. Even though he has never asked me out, when we had our big Girl-Ask-Boy dance, I asked him to go. He said he was sorry but he was a Junior Volunteer Fireman, and he might get a call that night. Then the Rainbow Girls had a dance and I asked him again. He said his sister was having a baby and it might be born that night, so he didn't think he should make any plans. Now the Girls' Glee Club is giving their big Annual Hayride and I want to ask him, but I am wondering if maybe he might get the idea that I am chasing him.

Combat Dust, Dirt from Two Sources

By ELEANOR ROSS

The meticulous, dedicated homemaker must sometimes feel that she spends the best years of her life with a dust-cloth in one hand and a mop in the other.

As soon as she cleans the house, more dust moves in and settles down. The frustrating question is: where does it come from?

Actually, from two sources — outside and inside! Next time you clean house, keep right on going — out the front door and the back door — because much of the dirt that is carried or blown into the house comes from porch, walks, garage, driveway and patio.

These areas should be swept clean — even scrubbed with suds, then hosed down where they are adjacent to open windows.

The less dirt you allow on outside entrances, the less you will have to combat indoors. Provide door mats and shoe-scrappers to spare the carpeting and floors.

Rough fiber mats are excellent outside the doors, and can be occasionally scrubbed clean with soap or detergent suds.

The more decorative mats, of course, look better inside. These include colorful cut pile mats bonded to rubber bases which absorb water and dirt and fortunately are machine-washable. Ribbed plastic mats are also effective and can be bought in squares or by the yard.

It's a good idea, too, to supply the family with disposable plastic boots for gardening, car washing and other outside chores. Place some kind of container handy inside the front and back doors, so muddy boots and rubbers can be deposited where they will do the least harm.

When you have taken precautions against dust from the outside, turn your attention to dust collectors that often go unnoticed inside the house. As an experiment, run your fingers across radiator tops, along the louvers of the warm-air ventilators, around the baseboards and over the window sills.

Even though you are sure you did a thorough cleaning job earlier in the day, chances are these "dustbins" were neglected. If so, they will inevitably dispense an unsightly film all over everything in the room.

Heating outlets are especially prone to circulate dust. As they receive heat from the furnace warm air rises, and it carries the dust upward.

Window sills catch dust that filters through screens and even the gentlest breeze carries it into the house. The little effort needed to keep these areas clean will pay off and your home's dust quotient will be greatly reduced.

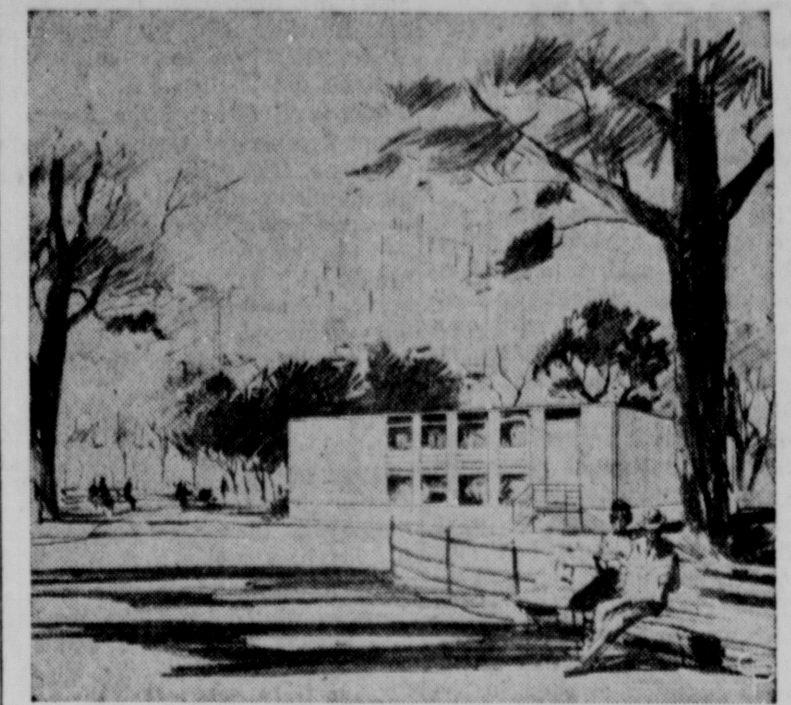

Take a sudsy sponge and swab radiators, baseboards and window sills frequently. A ruler wrapped in a sudsy cloth gets into the openings of ventilator louvers.

Much of the soil damage from grease-laden air that emanates from the kitchen can be controlled by having a hood over the kitchen range or a properly installed ventilating fan.

Both hood and fan should be washed regularly, using hot suds to remove the grease film. Be sure to rinse and wipe these surfaces dry, so that more dust won't cling to the damp metal.

If you are planning to stuff pork chops, and they make a fine company dish, see that they are 1 1/2 inches thick so that you can cut through the middle of each to form a pocket.

"Let me emphasize," Glekel continued, "we do not wish to destroy or intrude on any of the natural or wildlife areas yet remaining in our parks but rather would work with those cultivated and tended areas that already include walks, benches and other facilities.

"It would establish for New Yorkers an area of culture and study akin to that of Athens, of the ancient world, where the youth studied and learned outdoors, in public places."

The library installations would be attractive, mobile units, similar in design and construction to mobile classrooms

5 Children, Mother Die In Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP)—"If only the folks downstairs had yelled. That's all all we needed," said Theotis Dotson, whose pregnant wife and five children were killed by an intense fire that swept through their East Side apartment.

Dotson said his wife, Dorothy, 31, who was expecting another child next week, woke him early Sunday screaming that the house was on fire.

"I told her to get the kids and then I ran down the stairs to see what the matter was.

"The kitchen was a mass of flames. I ran upstairs, but by this time the fire was all around, and the kids and Dorothy were trapped in the back bedroom.

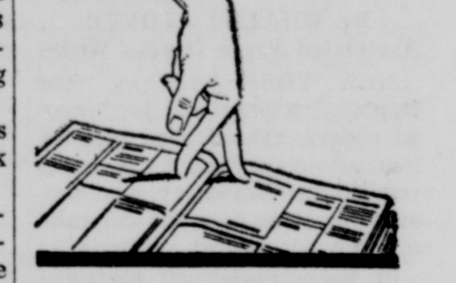

"All I can remember is the smoke, the fire and kids yelling, Daddy, Daddy, help us."

Dotson, 35, said he was driven back by flames and smoke when he tried to reach the bedroom. He jumped from the second-story kitchen window, escaping with cuts and bruises.

Killed with their mother were Wendolyn, 13, Larry, 12, Kerry, 5, and Theotis Jr., 3. Another daughter, Linda, 10 died five hours later in Polyclinic Hospital.

New Cosmetics
Actually
Work Wonders

COSMETIC CAMOUFLAGE — A tinted cosmetic stick is used to conceal blemishes, moles and freckles. It is also useful for banishing under-eye shadows.

By JOAN O'SULLIVAN
Cosmetics keep beauty secrets — and keep them well. The cosmetics we have in mind are those that camouflage. They can conceal everything from a broken nail to a blemished complexion.

Paste — on nails, available at the dime store, cover a broken nail in a nifty way. Once properly in place, the phony nail looks like the real thing.

Paste-in eyelashes conceal natural ones that are on the short and stubby side. If carefully trimmed, as instructions suggest, they're unbelievably glamorizing. Don't leave them too, too long, though, or they'll look artificial.

As camouflage goes, what's more concealing than the very popular wig?

It slips right over straggly locks and — presto! — curls. In make-up two items are especially great when it comes to camouflage.

One of them is a real wonder-worker. It literally covers marks — even blemishes.

Available in skin tones, it does a fantastically successful job of concealing not only port-wine stains but many other blemishes and discolorations as well. Once it's set with a colorless finishing powder, it won't rub off, chip or peel.

The other make-up, which is probably the most widely used of the camouflaging cosmetics, is a make-up stick in skin-matching shades. It conceals blemishes, moles and freckles and does a masterful job of making under-eye shadows vanish.

The library installations would be attractive, mobile units, similar in design and construction to mobile classrooms and other mobile educational facilities recently introduced in school systems around the country.

The low-cost, pocket library would offer shelf space for an extensive collection of books, serving thousands of people a day. The design would include blending indoors-with - outdoors and offer simple maintenance features.

Glekel has sent to the mayor and Commissioner Morris drawings of the proposed installations. The mobile library units would be 20 by 50 feet in size. They would be moved into position on their own wheel assemblies and then placed on the site.

They could easily be moved to a new site or converted into other uses to fulfill different needs that may arise, Glekel said.

CHS Tigers Claw Delaware In 49-43 Overtime Battle

By STEVE JONES

The Circleville High School basketball Tigers gave coach Don Neff little time to relax Saturday as they came up with a six-point overtime effort to defeat Delaware Hayes, 49-43, at the Upper Arlington tournament site.

It was the second overtime win for Circleville in two nights. They had toppled Washington C. H. in the same fashion Friday.

Next stop for the Tigers on the Class AA Central District tournament trail is Columbus Central High School at 10:45 a. m. Saturday in the Ohio State Fairgrounds Coliseum.

The Central Pirates outlasted a determined Olenyung quintet to earn a second round shot at the Tigers. The score was tied seven times in the third quarter. It was not until the last minute the Pirates grabbed a safe margin.

ONLY TWO of the four South Central Ohio League teams in the Central District moved up in Saturday's competition. Pleasant View defeated Jonathan Alder and will play Brookhaven 2:15 p. m. Saturday in the Coliseum at the State Fairgrounds.

Washington C. H. was dumped by Mifflin while Franklin Heights dropped a close decision to Worthington. Circleville has a SCO league game remaining with Franklin Heights, but it has not been rescheduled as yet.

Circleville's game began the same as many the Tigers have played this year. After 4½ minutes of play, the locals were down, 9-3. And they did not score a field goal until a scant 1:34 remained in the first period.

At the end of that initial eight minutes, the score was 11-7, with Delaware Hayes on top. And then the Tigers roared back in the second period.

Midway through the quarter, Chet Iery canned a long set shot that knotted the score. The game was evened twice more before two quick baskets near the intermission gave Circleville a 23-19 lead.

At the onset of the second half the Tigers hit on their first three attempts while the Pacers were scoring once.

THE FIRST three Tiger shots were potted 25 feet from the basket. But the eight-point margin those three quick tallies provided soon dwindled to five and then disappeared completely as the Pacers led, 37-36 at the three-quarter mark.

The Red and Black cagers stuck to their guns, despite the fact they could not sustain their third quarter drive. With two minutes to go, they held a four-point lead.

John Ward of Delaware Hayes pulled the Pacers within two points by canning a pair of foul shots.

Seconds later Dave Bass was fouled, but missed the chance to widen the margin. The bonus foul rule was in effect at the time. With 50 seconds to go he again stepped to the charity stripe and missed again.

Then with just 25 seconds in the game Phil Reed was fouled and he canned both attempts to knot things. Both teams had a desperation shot in the final frantic seconds, but neither was able to connect.

In the overtime the Tigers dominated, both on offense and defense.

John Thomas took the opening tip and drove under to collect two points. With 53 seconds to go Bob Purcell was fouled while in the act of shooting. He canned both chances and the Tigers were leading by four.

THE PACERS came back down the floor, fired away, missed and this time Tom Smith was fouled as he attempted to grab the rebound. But he mis-

Bob Purcell stole the ensuing inbounds pass, shoveled a quick pass to Dave Bass under the basket and the game was on ice for the Tigers. Only 25 seconds remained.

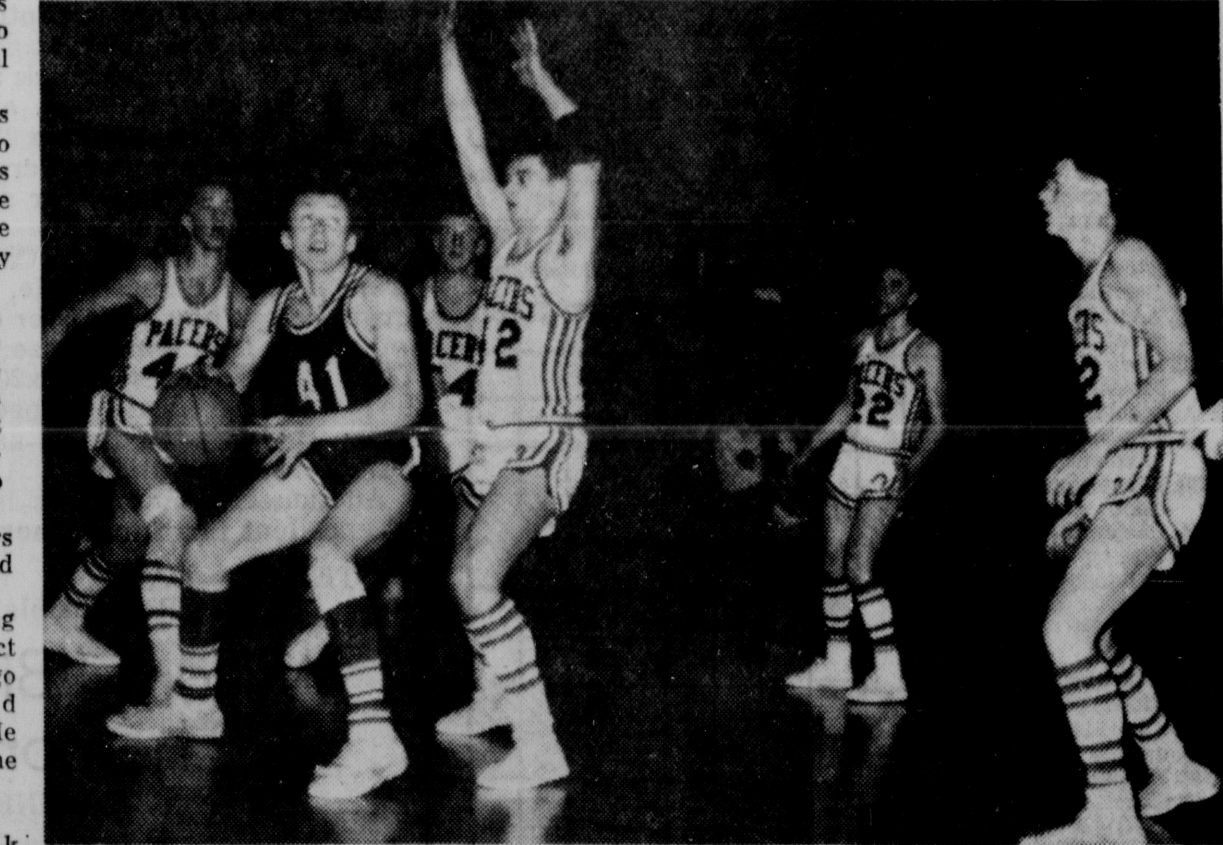

Smith was the leading scorer for the Tigers. He tallied six of 12 shots from the field and hit two of six charity tosses for a total of 14 points.

Dave Bass was the other Tiger to break into the double figure scoring column. He connected on five of 13 attempts from the field and one of four chances at the charity stripe.

Chet Iery and John Thomas scored eight points each. Bob Purcell tallied four, Ron Seward had two and Doug Roth and John Maxwell had one each.

The leading scorer for the losers was Phil Reed with 19 markers on seven field goals and five charity shots. John Ward tallied 16 on six field goals and four foul shots.

OU-Miami Cage Game Is Sellout

Wednesday Tilt May Tell Champ Of Mid-Am Loop

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Don't bother making the trip to Oxford, sports fans. Wednesday's Mid-American Conference clash between Ohio University and Miami is a sellout.

Withrow Court on the Miami campus is expected to be jammed to the rafters in the BIG game of the year that probably will determine the league champion.

Miami (8-2) is sitting pretty with a five-game victory skein and only two conference tilts remaining, both on the home boards.

The Bobcats (7-2) can jump into the driver's seat with an upset, but beating the Redskins in their own backyard is no simple chore.

Miami's only setback at home this season came in double overtime against tough Dayton.

The Redskins moved atop the pack in the rugged MAC with a key triumph Saturday night at Toledo. Charley Kinkins' tip-in as the final buzzer sounded gave the Redskins a 65-63 verdict.

The Miami-Toledo fray wasn't the only one that produced a dramatic finish.

In Cincinnati, Wichita had to beat the Bearcats twice before finally emerging with a 59-58 overtime decision.

The Wheatshockers thought they had won in regulation time when Dave Stallworth's shot as time ran out gave them what looked like a 56-54 victory.

Then the Bearcats protested the shot had come after the buzzer and the time keeper agreed. He explained to the officials that there was so much noise at the finish, the officials didn't hear the final gong, so he finally fired a gun.

Wichita had left the floor and the game was delayed 10 minutes while the visitors screamed their protests. In the extra session, Stallworth again contributed the big basket and the Shockers finally came out on top.

In other down-to-the-wire games, Joe McNeil's jump shot at the buzzer gave Xavier a 114-112 decision over Detroit; Dick Turner's field goal with three seconds left provided the difference as Akron nipped Hiram 60-58, and Doug Sims dropped in two free throws with five seconds remaining as Kent State shaded Marshall 76-74.

As usual, there were a flock of impressive performances. Incredible Gary Bradds scored 40 points as Ohio State romped over Wisconsin 92-74 to stay one game behind first-place Michigan in the Big Ten scramble. It marked the sixth successive 40-plus game for the 6-foot-8 All-American.

Hank Finkel, Dayton's sophomore sensation, whipped in 32 and grabbed 26 rebounds as the Flyers topped Memphis State, 83-73; Howie (Butch) Komives, the nation's top point-maker, fired in 50, his individual all-time high, as Bowling Green socked Niagara, 104-67, and freshman Don Carlos netted 41 and grabbed 21 rebounds as Otterbein trounced Baldwin-Wallace, 103-80.

In other headliners, Central State smacked Kentucky State 84-69 to record its 20th victory against only two losses; Ohio Conference leader Wittenberg shot a sizzling 67 per cent from the field to smother Oberlin 82-40, and Barry Clemens' 27 points and 21 rebounds helped Ohio Wesleyan record its seventh straight, 73-58 over Capital.

Split end Del Shofner, who caught 64 passes, gained 1,181 yards on forward pass receptions last season. It's the best one-year mark ever compiled by a New York Giant.

AL Summit Meeting To Study Finley

BOSTON (AP)—The American League lost the World Series, the All-Star Game and attendance last season. Now comes a Feb. 21 summit meeting when fellow owners decide whether to lose Charles O. Finley.

Time twice has run out on deadlines for Athletics' owner Finley to sign a lease with Kansas City officials.

So far, there's no agreement reached or action taken. Mid-night Saturday passed and Finley's adamant two-year or nothing lease stand appeared to stymie the AL as effectively as Sandy Koufax had the pennant-winning Yankees.

President Joe Cronin took the first step Sunday by announcing the Friday meeting to which Kansas City officials are invited.

Cronin hints the owners may be ready to carry out their threat to oust Finley, made at the last owners' meeting Jan. 16 when Finley's request to move the franchise to Louisville was killed 9-1.

Finley reaffirmed Sunday night he would be at the controls when Kansas City opens the season.

Since the previous owners' meeting, Finley has threatened a law suit if the league attempts to take away his franchise and retained famed trial lawyer Louis Nizer.

High School Kid Aims at Olympics

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Little Gerry Lindgren, a squeaky-voiced high school distance running sensation, may learn this week just how good his chances are to run in the 1964 Olympics.

The 115-pounder from Spokane, Wash., who posts ever-more-incredible times in each race he runs, will try for the National AAU indoor three-mile title Saturday night in New York.

"I sure don't know what I can do," said Gerry last Saturday night after he ran 8:40.0 for two miles at the Golden Gate Invitational.

What he has done so far in run two miles nearly 30 seconds faster than any high schooler in history, approach within 10.4 seconds of world standards and lose only grudgingly in two races against pending world record holders.

Pro Football TV Is Rapped

High Schools Join NCAA in Protest

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The NCAA and a national high school organization have taken a strong stand against television of pro football on Friday nights, contending the plan violates the spirit and the intent of the federal antitrust law of 1961.

The NCAA, with 613 colleges as members, asked the Senate Judiciary Committee to investigate and should it find the plan isn't a violation, to consider amending it to prevent any Friday night telecasts by the pros.

Walt Byers, NCAA executive director, said the 1961 law specifies pro teams may not televise their games on Friday night or Saturday from any station within 75 miles of a college football game. Byers said there is no reference to high schools.

The American Broadcasting Co., which has signed the Ford Motor Co. as sponsor, contends the five National League games it plans to show next fall aren't covered in the 1961 law, because the games are being negotiated with individual clubs and not the NFL.

Byers in a statement authorized by the NCAA's legislative and television committee said Saturday the plan is a violation "because available evidence suggests coordinated action by the parties involved and an agreement not to respect the blackout provisions of the law."

He added the "indifference of professional football to the estimated 18,000 high schools, the bulk of which play their games on Friday night" is intentional.

In Chicago, Clifford Fagan, executive secretary of the National Federation of State High School Athletic Associations, declared the pro games "quite obviously would work havoc with the high school football program."

Fagan called for a coordinated, vigorous protest by his group's 20,111 members, most of which play football.

Elston Howard of the Yankees paced American League catchers in hitting in 1963 with a .287 mark, two points higher than Earl Battey of the Minnesota Twins.

Tatum has played pro ball for more than 25 years and has appeared before more than 25 million fans. He has scored more than 100,000 points.

One of the greatest dribblers in professional basketball Goose Tatum Jr., will be seen with the Roadkings. The son of the "clown prince of basketball", Goose Jr. puts on a spectacular dribbling show during the ball game.

ANOTHER star of the hardwood court, former Detroit Pistons player, Reggie Harding, a 7-1 giant, will appear here with the Harlem Roadkings.

CHS Tigers Claw Delaware In 49-43 Overtime Battle

By STEVE JONES

The Circleville High School basketball Tigers gave coach Don Neff little time to relax Saturday as they came up with a six-point overtime effort to defeat Delaware Hayes, 49-43, at the Upper Arlington tournament site.

It was the second overtime win for Circleville in two nights. They had topped Washington C. H. in the same fashion Friday.

Next stop for the Tigers on the Class AA Central District tournament trail is Columbus Central High School at 10:45 a. m. Saturday in the Ohio State Fairgrounds Coliseum.

The Central Pirates outlasted a determined Orlentang quintet to earn a second round shot at the Tigers. The score was tied seven times in the third quarter. It was not until the last minute the Pirates grabbed a safe margin.

ONLY TWO of the four South Central Ohio League teams in the Central District moved up in Saturday's competition. Pleasant View defeated Jonathan Alder and will play Brookhaven 2:15 p. m. Saturday in the Coliseum at the State Fairgrounds.

MEN PAST 40

Troubled with GETTING UP NIGHTS
Pains in BACK, HIPS, LEGS
Tiredness, LOSS OF VIGOR

If you are a victim of these symptoms then your troubles may be traced to Glandular Inflammation. Glandular Inflammation is a constitutional disease and medicines that give temporary relief will not remove the causes of your troubles. Neglect of Glandular Inflammation often leads to premature senility, and incurable conditions.

The past year men from 1,000 communities have been successfully treated. They have found soothing relief and improved health.

RECTAL-COLON
Are often associated with glandular inflammation.
Reducible Hernia
is amenable to a mild Non-Surgical treatment.
Any of these disorders may be treated at the same time you are receiving Glandular Inflammation treatment.

College Cage Chieftains Awaiting Tourney Bids

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A number of college basketball coaches and athletic directors are sitting nervously beside telephones today. For some of them, it will ring once. For some twice. For some not at all.

They're waiting for the word from the National Invitation Tournament and the National Collegiate Athletic Association, which start picking the fields for their tournaments, the two major post-season attractions.

Fifteen of the 25 berths in the NCAA tournament are reserved for conference champions, but the other 10 go to at-large teams. The NCAA started bidding for those 10 teams today, an hour before the NIT can put in its bids for the 12 teams that make up the field for the Madison Square Garden attraction.

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF PICKAWAY COUNTY, OHIO

In the Matter of the Conveyance of Certain Real Estate of the Christ Church of Lick Run, Jackson Township, Pickaway County, Ohio, and to all others whom it may concern, that on the 31 day of January, 1964, the Trustees of said Church, filed in the Court of Common Pleas of Pickaway County, Ohio, in Case No. 23322, their certain petition praying the Court for an order giving them authority to sell and convey in fee simple, at the best price obtainable, to such purchaser or purchasers as may be found, the following described real estate situated in the County of Pickaway, in the State of Ohio, and in the township of Jackson and bounded and described as follows, to wit:

Beginning at a stone corner of Neffs and Whites lot, thence S. 22 degrees E. 46 poles to a stone corner to said Church lot, thence S. 69 degrees W. 13 poles to the center of the road, thence S. 65 degrees E. 19 poles to a stone at fork of road, thence N. 22 degrees W. 13 poles and 22 1/2 poles to the beginning, containing ninety (90) poles of land and being a part of Survey No. 6436 made in the name of Benjamin H. O'Neil and being the same land that was sold and conveyed unto the said James Marshall by Jacob H. Schryver and Elizabeth, his wife, by Indenture under date of March 17, 1853 and of record in the Recorder's Office at Circleville in Book 28 in pages 114 and 115 and being the same premises conveyed by James Marshall and Sarah Marshall, his wife, to James Marshall, James Whiteside, Enos Stouffer, John Mitchell, William S. Littleton, Trustees by deed dated the 24th of December A.D. 1854 and entered of record in the Recorder's Office, Pickaway County, Ohio in Book 31 pages 39, 40 and 41.

Being the same premises conveyed to John List, Martin Trump and Philip Kern, as Trustees of Christ Church by Albert Pherson, Robert Pherson and John McLaughlin, Trustees of the Lick Run Methodist Episcopal Church by deed dated October 13, 1896, and recorded in Pickaway County, Ohio Deed Records, Volume 56 at page 107.

Said petition and cause will be heard on Tuesday the 3rd day of March, 1964, or as soon thereafter as may be.

Three highly successful independents, Villanova, DePaul, and Oregon State, are virtually assured of bids to each. In such a case, the school can make its own choice.

Villanova, with victories over Duquesne, 73-63, and Canisius, 73-58, last week, is ranked eighth in the nation on a 19-2 record. There are indications it would prefer the NCAA spot if offered, but would be one of the big attractions for the NIT.

Oregon State, No. 9 in the nation, pushed its record to 21-3 with a 76-72 decision over Seattle last week and DePaul, No. 10, is 16-2 after victories over Marquette, 72-69, and Western Ontario, 98-58.

Temple is the first team to be assured of a tourney berth, having wrapped up the Middle Atlantic championship and a spot as a conference boss in the NCAA.

UCLA, the No. 1 team in the nation and the only major unbeaten, is within one game of securing at least a tie for the Big Six championship, and another spot and seems assured of doing so. The Bruins rolled over Washington twice last week, 73-58 and 88-60, pushing their record to 21-0.

Michigan, No. 2 in the nation, leads the Big Ten at 8-1 and 17-2 over-all.

Kentucky is ranked third at 18-2, but shares the Southeastern Conference lead with Georgia Tech, each 8-2 in the league. No. 4 Davidson tops the Southern at 19-3 and 8-2; No. 5 Duke leads the Atlantic Coast at 17-3 and 10-0.

Vanderbilt lost twice over the week, 71-75 in overtime to Georgia Tech and 64-62 to Tennessee and dropped to a share of fourth in the SEC and appears in danger of losing its No. 7 national ranking.

Women's Bowling Lead Unchanged

LIMA, Ohio (AP)—Five hundred distaff keggers failed to dislodge the first-week leaders as the Ohio Women's Bowling Association state tournament ran through the second of its 17 weekends Saturday and Sunday.

But there is a new team leader. Ehrhart's of Fairborn bowled 3064 to move on top of the five-woman standings in the 38th annual handicap competition.

Lydia Mersman of Ottawa with 693 and the duo of Frances Kreider, Greenville, and Betty Cook, Union City, with 1290 scores including handicap stayed in the singles and doubles leads.

Bobbie Lipman of Cleveland took the lead in all-events, based on actual pinfall, with 1729.

The University of Kentucky has two of the tallest guards in college basketball in 6-6 sophomore Tom Kron and 6-5 senior Charles Ishmael.

The music was tuneful, the dancing graceful and ingenious, the sketches amusing and the guest stars talented.

Peter Gennaro, the bright dancing star, was great and the hit number of the whole show perhaps was his light-footed duet with Kathryn Crosby. Bing's young wife demonstrated that she could sing nicely, too.

Crosby was his usual relaxed self, singing with Rosemary Clooney, exchanging the usual insult banter with Bob Hope and generally keeping things moving.

Another happy weekend note was the premiere Friday night of ABC's new Western series, "Destry," a tongue-in-cheek affair reminiscent of those wonderful early "Maverick" shows.

Destry is played by John Gavin who is an attractive cross between James Stewart and James Garner. He is supposed to be hunting down a fellow who framed him, but he's not very serious about it. It's just a device to move him to new adventures, preferably comedic, each week.

All in all it was a fine weekend of television, without even one drama about drug addiction. Even the Beatles on Ed Sullivan's Show Sunday night seemed fun, or am I getting accustomed to their hairdos?

Royals Romp As Pistons Hit Bottom

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

And you think you've got troubles. Consider the case of one Charley Wolf, basketball coach.

A year ago Charley Wolf was coach of the Cincinnati Royals, who won their 11th straight National Basketball Association game Sunday. Today he is coach of the Detroit Pistons, who lost their 45th game of the season Sunday.

And if you think that's bad, remember that the Pistons must play 20 more games this season and that the club never has lost more than 46 games in a season. The potential is staggering.

Wolf's Pistons lost their second game inside of 20 hours to the Baltimore Bullets 111-99 Sunday while the Royals, who used to be Wolf's, came from behind to drop Philadelphia 114-97. In a West Coast game, the Boston Celtics won their second straight sub-100 point game, edging the Los Angeles Lakers 92-90.

The Bullets kept their slim Western Division playoff hopes alive with their fourth straight victory and the 12th in the last 18 games. Walt Bellamy's 29 points and Gus Johnson's 25 paced the attack for Baltimore, which had nipped the Pistons 124-122 Saturday night.

In Saturday night's other games, Boston downed San Francisco 96-87, Cincinnati belted New York 130-124 and St. Louis whipped Philadelphia 118-110.

College Cage Chieftains Awaiting Tourney Bids

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A number of college basketball coaches and athletic directors are sitting nervously beside telephones today. For some of them, it will ring once. For some twice. For some not at all.

They're waiting for the word from the National Invitation Tournament and the National Collegiate Athletic Association, which start picking the fields for their tournaments, the two major post-season attractions.

Fifteen of the 25 berths in the NCAA tournament are reserved for conference champions, but the other 10 go to at-large teams. The NCAA started bidding for those 10 teams today, an hour before the NIT can put in its bids for the 12 teams that make up the field for the Madison Square Garden attraction.

NEW YORK (AP) — Bing Crosby makes only an occasional television appearance. Each of his shows, however, has been delightful and the most recent, on CBS Saturday, perhaps was the best of all.

The music was tuneful, the dancing graceful and ingenious, the sketches amusing and the guest stars talented.
Peter Gennaro, the bright dancing star, was great and the hit number of the whole show perhaps was his light-footed duet with Kathryn Crosby. Bing's young wife demonstrated that she could sing nicely, too.

Crosby was his usual relaxed self, singing with Rosemary Clooney, exchanging the usual insult banter with Bob Hope and generally keeping things moving.

Another happy weekend note was the premiere Friday night of ABC's new Western series, "Destry," a tongue-in-cheek affair reminiscent of those wonderful early "Maverick" shows. Destry is played by John Gavin who is an attractive cross between James Stewart and James Garner. He is supposed to be hunting down a fellow who framed him, but he's not very serious about it. It's just a device to move him to new adventures, preferably comedic, each week.

All in all it was a fine weekend of television, without even one drama about drug addiction. Even the Beatles on Ed Sullivan's show Sunday night seemed fun, or am I getting accustomed to their hairdos?

Recommended tonight: "Hollywood and the Stars," NBC, 9:30-10 (EST) — "The Angry Screen," a study of films used for propaganda purposes.

Royals Romp As Pistons Hit Bottom

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
And you think you've got troubles. Consider the case of one Charley Wolf, basketball coach.

A year ago Charley Wolf was coach of the Cincinnati Royals, who won their 11th straight National Basketball Association game Sunday. Today he is coach of the Detroit Pistons, who lost their 45th game of the season Sunday.

And if you think that's bad, remember that the Pistons must play 20 more games this season and that the club never has lost more than 46 games in a season. The potential is staggering.

Wolf's Pistons lost their second game inside of 20 hours to the Baltimore Bullets 111-99 Sunday while the Royals, who used to be Wolf's, came from behind to drop Philadelphia 114-97. In a West Coast game, the Boston Celtics won their second straight sub-100 point game, edging the Los Angeles Lakers 92-90.

The Bullets kept their slim Western Division playoff hopes alive with their fourth straight victory and the 12th in the last 18 games. Walt Bellamy's 29 points and Gus Johnson's 25 paced the attack for Baltimore, which had nipped the Pistons 124-122 Saturday night.

In Saturday night's other games, Boston downed San Francisco 96-87, Cincinnati belted New York 130-124 and St. Louis whipped Philadelphia 118-110.

Quadruple Murder-Suicide Is Ruling in Athens Case

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — The sheriff and coroner have recorded the Athens County hill country shooting tragedy of the past weekend as quadruple murder and suicide.

Funeral arrangements are under way for the five victims, including a mass funeral for four slain members of the W. M. Wildman family.

That will be held in Parkersburg W. Va., at 1 p. m. Tuesday. Meanwhile, the body of Rudy Zamora, who reportedly put a shotgun to his stomach Saturday morning as a posse closed in on him, was to be shipped to San Antonio, Tex., probably Monday.

Carlos Zamora, father of Rudy, 20, lives in San Antonio, whence the youth came to Ohio to work for the Wildmans, his sister's in-laws.

W. M. Wildman, 57; his wife Mildred, 60; their son Eugene, 14, and their widowed daughter, Mrs. Geneva Pierce, about 26, will lie in Parkersburg's Leavitt Funeral Home. The parents and the boy will be buried in Bethany Cemetery near Parkersburg, Mrs. Pierce at Cathage in Athens County.

Meanwhile, survivors of the family must take up new lives in the wake of the mass shooting at the Wildman farm home, now officially attributed to the young farmhand.

The Wildmans leave a daughter, Patricia, 22, a Parkersburg college student who is in Athens' Shelters Arms Hospital in fair condition with wounds received in the shooting spree.

And Mrs. Pierce leaves four young sons—Danny, 6, Dale, 5, David, 3, and Dean, 2. Danny also is in the hospital, recovering from wounds he too received during the tragedy.

The boys are orphans. Their father died only about a month ago of a heart attack.

The Sheriff's Office said an aunt was caring for the boys who weren't wounded, and that "everybody is taking for granted" that relatives will care for them permanently.

Then there are the Wildmans' son, Solomon, who lives with his wife—Rudy Zamora's sister, Carmen—in a house trailer at Middleport, 25 miles from here. Solomon works as a circulation man for Athens' daily newspaper, the Messenger.

Glenn Plans Ohio Return In March

CLEVELAND (AP) — Mrs. John H. Glenn Jr. says she and her astronaut husband will return to Ohio from Houston after March 1 to begin active campaigning.

She made the announcement here Sunday while she and Mrs. Malcolm Scott Carpenter, wife of another famous astronaut, did some politicking for Glenn, who is seeking the Democratic nomination for U.S. senator in the Ohio primary May 5.

The two men chatted with several hundred guests—some of them from as far away as Toledo and Youngstown—at a tea and reception sponsored by the Cuyahoga County Women - for Glenn Committee.

The guests also met Glenn's mother, Mrs. John H. Glenn Sr., and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Homer Castor, both of New Concord.

Mrs. Carpenter told the guests that "when Annie Glenn and I got this brainstorm to come up and meet you we had to convince our husbands that, more than surveys, campaign managers and political machines, it is you women who are the most potent force in any election."

She said Glenn is qualified to be a senator because "He has the noblest qualities of the human spirit."

These are, she added, his "quiet patriotism, technical experience, concern for human need, innate intelligence, moral character, vitality and faith in God."

Kettering Memorial Hospital Dedicated

DAYTON, Ohio (AP) — The $10 million Charles F. Kettering Memorial Hospital, one of the nation's most modern, was dedicated Sunday and opens to patients March 3.

Situated on the late inventor-philanthropist's estate in suburban Kettering, the hospital was financed mainly by C. F.'s son, Eugene, and community subscription. The Seventh-day Adventist Church has been chosen to administer the five-story, 400 bed institution.

100-Year-Old Canton Church Hit by Fire

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—The Jerusalem Baptist Church, believed to be more than 100 years old, was destroyed Sunday in a spectacular fire that sent flames leaping high above the old brick building.

Residents of an apartment house near the church at 810 Tuscarawas St. were evacuated until firemen brought the blaze under control.

How Weather Looks Today

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather:

The storm center which deposited various amounts of snow on Ohio over the weekend was well off the New England coast early today.

Skies cleared over most all of Ohio Sunday night, and temperatures dropped into the teens and lower 20s.

A large high pressure area covered the eastern third of the nation early today and was expected to govern the weather in Ohio for the next 24 hours, producing fair skies and seasonable temperatures.

A low pressure system in the eastern Rocky Mountain states early today was to move eastward, bringing cloudiness back to Ohio Tuesday.

Some representative temperatures over Ohio early today were Toledo 14, Cleveland 10, Columbus 13, Zanesville 15, Chesapeake 20 and Cincinnati 21.

OHIO FIVE DAY FORECASTS

Ruby Trial Starts Today In Dallas

His defense will pivot on a claim of temporary insanity the assertion that he became unhinged with grief by the death of the President.

His chief defense counsel, Melvin Mouron Belli, of San Francisco in an informal talk with reporters Sunday night spoke of "psychomotor epilepsy", "psychic shock" and "trauma." He pictured Ruby as a victim of psychomotor epilepsy, subject to blackouts, which could be touched off by rage, shock, or a powerful emotion.

He said he did not know whether he would put Ruby on the witness stand, but he said:

"If he's on the stand a long time, you'll see a definite dysfunction. This guy, if you keep him there, on the stand or in jail much longer, you won't have to take him any place to show he's wacky."

The state contends Ruby was completely sane when he shot Oswald. Homicide Police Capt. Will Fritz and officer James R. Leavell—who was handcuffed to Oswald when Ruby shot him—have testified that Ruby looked calm at that moment. Ruby shot Oswald at close range with a snub-nosed, 38-caliber pistol Nov. 24.

Two unusual elements hang darkly over this case.

One is the speculation that Kennedy's death was the result of a monstrous conspiracy, and that Ruby killed Oswald to "keep him from talking." No evidence has appeared to support this. On the contrary, in a series of ghost-written articles under Ruby's name, the accused man said:

"No one knew was going to shoot Oswald—not even me. No one helped me or gave me access. I didn't do it intentionally. I didn't even know had done it."

The other is Belli's contention that Dallas is so saturated with prejudice and feelings of guilt that Ruby cannot get a fair trial here. He says people in Dallas want a "sacrifice" to purge the name of the city.

Last week, Belli fought to have the trial moved to some other city. After presiding Judge Joe B. Brown ordered the lawyers to begin trying to select a jury today, Belli said:

"The people of Dallas, perhaps unconsciously, have to have a sacrifice in order to cleanse themselves, to prove Dallas is a law abiding community. They feel if Ruby is executed, it would reestablish some sense of law and order."

Last month, Judge Brown ordered a neurological examination of Ruby by three psychiatrists, one requested by the prosecution, one by the defense, the third appointed by the judge.

Brown said their report is now in custody of the court.

Durable Durward Kirby Unhurt by TV Changes

NEW YORK (AP) — Sing no sad songs for Durward Kirby, even if — as appears likely — "The Garry Moore Show" is now in its sixth and final season.

The tall—6 feet 4—blond Kentuckian who has backstopped Moore in the CBS variety show has shown a remarkable ability to remain profitably and happily employed since, as a Purdue undergraduate, he got a job as announcer on the college radio station.

Kirby's most remarkable demonstration of this ability was the premiere of his first New York radio program: 9 a.m. Jan. 1, 1946.

Somehow, both Kirby and his show survived, and by 1948 he had moved on to a television program of his own. His relationship with Moore, however, goes back 23 years when both were bright young funny men on Ransom Sherman's popular "Club Matinee" radio program out of Chicago.

At the moment, Kirby's enormous versatility has rewarded him with two jobs. On the Moore show, he is the permanent second banana, occasional straight man, sketch actor, singer, dancer — simple steps — and somehow can switch instantly from slapstick to dignified salesman of the sponsor's product.

He also serves as host and occasional participant in the filmed hijinks on Allen Funt's "Candid Camera."

Kirby keeps a busy schedule. From Monday morning through Friday, his hours are pretty well devoted to rehearsing the weekly Garry Moore program, involv-

Beatle-Like Haircut Brings School Fuss

FRANKLIN, Ohio (AP) — A war over "Beatle"-like hair began last week at Franklin High School, but apparently a cease-fire has been reached pending further negotiations.

Robert Mayer said Sunday night he will comb his hair in normal style and go to school today. He was suspended for 10 days Friday after ignoring a warning to change his hair style.

The 16-year-old junior barbered himself a couple of weeks ago. He cut his dark hair straight across the front and then combed it forward.

The resulting bangs made the young track star look like one of the visiting British singing group—but Robert calls his hair style a "Caesar," not a "Beatle." The Beatles have been a tremendous hit with the teen-age set.

Robert said he could see some reason for a ban on really far-out haircuts. He said that he hopes to reach a compromise with school officials. His mother backed him up.

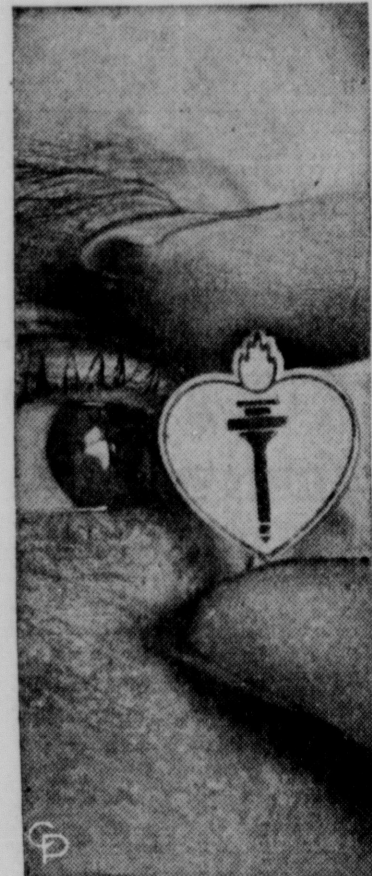

"I think it's going too far when school people try to tell parents how their son should cut his hair," said Mrs. Ernest Mayer. "I think they let girls get away with too much."

Her son said he had come to an understanding with school officials and would discuss his hair style again later this week.

Quadruple Murder-Suicide Is Ruling in Athens Case

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — The sheriff and coroner have recorded the Athens County hill country shooting tragedy of the past weekend as quadruple murder and suicide.

Funeral arrangements are under way for the five victims, including a mass funeral for four slain members of the W. M. Wildman family.

That will be held in Parkersburg W. Va., at 1 p. m. Tuesday. Meanwhile, the body of Rudy Zamora, who reportedly put a shotgun to his stomach Saturday morning as a posse closed in on him, was to be shipped to San Antonio, Tex., probably Monday.

Carlos Zamora, father of Rudy, 20, lives in San Antonio, whence the youth came to Ohio to work for the Wildmans, his sister's-in-laws.

W. M. Wildman, 57; his wife Mildred, 60; their son Eugene, 14, and their widowed daughter, Mrs. Geneva Pierce, about 26, will lie in Parkersburg's Leavitt Funeral Home. The parents and the boy will be buried in Bethany Cemetery near Parkersburg, Mrs. Pierce at Cathage in Athens County.

Meanwhile, survivors of the family must take up new lives in the wake of the mass shooting at the Wildman farm home, now officially attributed to the young farmhand.

The Wildmans leave a daughter, Patricia, 22, a Parkersburg college student who is in Athens' Shelters Arms Hospital in fair condition with wounds received in the shooting spree.

And Mrs. Pierce leaves four young sons—Danny, 6, Dale, 5, David, 3, and Dean, 2. Danny also is in the hospital, recovering from wounds he too received during the tragedy.

The boys are orphans. Their father died only about a month

ago of a heart attack.

The Sheriff's Office said an aunt was caring for the boys who weren't wounded, and that "everybody is taking for granted" that relatives will care for them permanently.

Then there are the Wildmans' son, Solomon, who lives with his wife—Rudy Zamora's sister, Carmen—in a house trailer at Middleport, 25 miles from here. Solomon works as a circulation man for Athens' daily newspaper, the Messenger.

Glenn Plans Ohio Return In March

CLEVELAND (AP) — Mrs. John H. Glenn Jr. says she and her astronaut husband will return to Ohio from Houston after March 1 to begin active campaigning.

She made the announcement here Sunday while she and Mrs. Malcolm Scott Carpenter, wife of another famous astronaut, did some politicking for Glenn, who is seeking the Democratic nomination for U.S. senator in the Ohio primary May 5.

The two men chatted with several hundred guests—some of them from as far away as Toledo and Youngstown—at a tea and reception sponsored by the Cuyahoga County Women for Glenn Committee.

The guests also met Glenn's mother, Mrs. John H. Glenn Sr., and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Homer Castor, both of New Concord.

Mrs. Carpenter told the guests that "when Annie Glenn and I got this brainstorm to come up and meet you we had to convince our husbands that, more than surveys, campaign managers and political machines, it is you women who are the most potent force in any election."

She said Glenn is qualified to be a senator because "He has the noblest qualities of the human spirit."

These are, she added, his "quiet patriotism, technical experience, concern for human need, innate intelligence, moral character, vitality and faith in God."

Situated on the late inventor-philanthropist's estate in suburban Kettering, the hospital was financed mainly by C. F.'s son, Eugene, and community subscription. The Seventh-day Adventist Church has been chosen to administer the five-story, 400 bed institution.

100-Year-Old Canton Church Hit by Fire

CANTON, Ohio (AP)—The Jerusalem Baptist Church, believed to be more than 100 years old, was destroyed Sunday in a spectacular fire that sent flames leaping high above the old brick building.

Residents of an apartment house near the church at 810 Tuscarawas St. were evacuated until firemen brought the blaze under control.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Official Weather Bureau summary of Ohio's weather:

The storm center which deposited various amounts of snow on Ohio over the weekend was well off the New England coast early today.

Skies cleared over most all of Ohio Sunday night, and temperatures dropped into the teens and lower 20s.

A large high pressure area covered the eastern third of the nation early today and was expected to govern the weather in Ohio for the next 24 hours, producing fair skies and seasonable temperatures.

A low pressure system in the eastern Rocky Mountain states early today was to move eastward, bringing cloudiness back to Ohio Tuesday.

Some representative temperatures over Ohio early today were Toledo 14, Cleveland 10, Columbus 13, Zanesville 15, Chesapeake 20 and Cincinnati 21.

OHIO FIVE DAY FORECASTS
NORTHERN OHIO—Temperatures will average three to four degrees above normal. Normal high 36-37, normal low 19-23. Cooler Wednesday, warming again Thursday, only minor changes rest of week. Precipitation will average one-half inch melted as daily snow flurries except perhaps Friday.

Ruby Trial Starts Today In Dallas

His defense will pivot on a claim of temporary insanity the assertion that he became unhinged with grief by the death of the President.

His chief defense counsel, Melvin Mouron Belli, of San Francisco in an informal talk with reporters Sunday night spoke of "psychomotor epilepsy", "psychic shock" and "trauma." He pictured Ruby as a victim of psychomotor epilepsy, subject to blackouts, which could be touched off by rage, shock, or a powerful emotion.

He said he did not know whether he would put Ruby on the witness stand, but he said: "If he's on the stand a long time, you'll see a definite dysfunction. This guy, if you keep him there, on the stand or in jail much longer, you won't have to take him any place to show he's wacky."

The state contends Ruby was completely sane when he shot Oswald. Homicide Police Capt. Will Fritz and officer James R. Leavelle—who was handcuffed to Oswald when Ruby shot him—have testified that Ruby looked calm at that moment. Ruby shot Oswald at close range with a snub-nosed, 38-caliber pistol Nov. 24.

Two unusual elements hang darkly over this case.

One is the speculation that Kennedy's death was the result of a monstrous conspiracy, and that Ruby killed Oswald to "keep him from talking." No evidence has appeared to support this. On the contrary, in a series of ghost-written articles under Ruby's name, the accused man said:

"No one knew was going to shoot Oswald—not even me. No one helped me or gave me access. I didn't do it intentionally. I didn't even know had done it."

The other is Belli's contention that Dallas is so saturated with prejudice and feelings of guilt that Ruby cannot get a fair trial here. He says people in Dallas want a "sacrifice" to purge the name of the city.

Last week, Belli fought to have the trial moved to some other city. After presiding Judge Joe B. Brown ordered the lawyers to begin trying to select a jury today, Belli said: "The people of Dallas, perhaps unconsciously, have to have a sacrifice in order to cleanse themselves, to prove Dallas is a law abiding community. They feel if Ruby is executed, it would reestablish some sense of law and order."

Last month, Judge Brown ordered a neurological examination of Ruby by three psychiatrists, one requested by the prosecution, one by the defense, the third appointed by the judge.

Brown said their report is now in custody of the court.

Durable Durward Kirby Unhurt by TV Changes

NEW YORK (AP) — Sing no sad songs for Durward Kirby, even if — as appears likely — "The Garry Moore Show" is now in its sixth and final season.

The tall—6 feet 4—blond Kentuckian who has backstopped Moore in the CBS variety show has shown a remarkable ability to remain profitably and happily employed since, as a Purdue undergraduate, he got a job as announcer on the college radio station.

Kirby's most remarkable demonstration of this ability was the premiere of his first New York radio program: 9 a.m. Jan. 1, 1946.

Somehow, both Kirby and his show survived, and by 1948 he had moved on to a television program of his own. His relationship with Moore, however, goes back 23 years when both were bright young funny men on Ransom Sherman's popular "Club Matinee" radio program out of Chicago.

At the moment, Kirby's enormous versatility has rewarded him with two jobs. On the Moore show, he is the permanent second banana, occasional straight man, sketch actor, singer, dancer — simple steps — and somehow can switch instantly from slapstick to dignified salesman of the sponsor's product.

He also serves as host and occasional participant in the filmed hijinks on Allen Funt's "Candid Camera."

Kirby keeps a busy schedule. From Monday morning through Friday, his hours are pretty well devoted to rehearsing the weekly Garry Moore program, involving as often as not, extra time spent learning dance steps and song lyrics.

On Tuesday and Thursday afternoons, he and Moore go to CBS Radio studios where they tape, at a rate of four at a clip, their daily 10-minute radio show. "All we do is sit around and talk — and be provocative," he says.

On alternate Wednesdays he spends the afternoon and evening taping two "Candid Camera" programs, which involves looking over the filmed segments in advance and planning the introductions to each.

Boycott Moratorium Called in Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Congress of Racial Equality has called for a three-week moratorium on boycotts and demonstrations in the Cincinnati public schools.

Civil rights groups sponsored a peaceful school boycott last Tuesday and about 18,000 students stayed out of classes. The purpose of the boycott was to protest alleged de facto segregation in the public schools. An estimated 37 per cent of a total enrollment of 75,000 are Negroes.
